Executive Compensation

9. MOVED ________________, SECONDED ________________

Whereas executive compensation has not been reviewed by the Society or Council for a number of years, Whereas the living expenses have increased over these years, and Whereas Council has recently decided to replace the Oversight Committee in its governance review which found PAI ineffective,

BE IT RESOLVED THAT AMS Council approve the following changes to Executive Compensation, recommended by the Oversight Committee, to take effect for the 2016-2017 AMS Executive: 1. To set the Performance Allocation Incentive to $0, with executive compensation being restored to $32,500. 2. To increase the total Executive Pay, at a base of $32,500, by the average increase in CPI since the last pay increase, multiplied by the number of years since this increase. 3. To tie executive pay annually to CPI, such that increases with respect to living expenses become automatic.
