… Carried

F) Presentations to Council and Accompanying Motions (10 minutes for presentation, 5 minute period):

VP Academic & University Affairs Office Restructure – Max Holmes [SCD327-18]

- Last year (April 2017) we restructured and eliminated almost all topical positions.
- In October we made some tweaks.
- In February we reviewed and consulted.
- Before April 2017 there were six topical commissioners, plus an AVP.
- No one was responsible for campaigns and outreach.
- The number of hours per position (10) wasn’t enough, and there was overlap in positions.
- The structure didn’t make sense, and it was hard to fill positions.
- The change in April 2017 meant we kept the Indigenous position as the only topical commissioner.
- There was also an AVP, two research assistants, and a Campaigns & Outreach Commissioner.
- This freed up the VP, giving them only three direct reports, so they could do more advocacy.
- Commissioners worked 15 hours a week and so had more buy-in. They also got work stations.
- But the Indigenous Commissioner did not have enough work, and resigned.
- Their duties were divided among the others.
- The AVP at this point (after April 2017) worked more than 20 hours.
- In October 2017 the AVP’s hours were bumped up to 25.
- The Campaigns & Outreach Commissioner also got a five-hour increase in October.
- Until the October increases there had been no change in the total number of hours for the office.
- It remains a concern to ensure that the VP Academic and University Affairs (VPAUA) did not have too many direct reports.
- There is also a desire to devote more time to academic issues, such as: academic concession and accommodation, working with the Student Senators, curriculum consultations, faculty specific advocacy, the fall reading week, and exam scheduling.
- So now another new structure.
- We’re splitting the office so there will be two AVP’s, one for Academic Affairs and one for University Affairs.
- Still limiting the number of direct reports to the VPAUA to three.
- There’s a net increase of 10 hours for the office.
- With two AVP’s, they won’t be overworked, and they can hire their own commissioners.
Questions
Cameron England:
- Under the new structure where do the Indigenous responsibilities lie?

Max Holmes:
- This will go to the AVP's, and Campaigns & Outreach will liaise.
- We may create an Executive-wide position on Indigenous affairs.

Alan Ehrenholz:
- Decreasing the number of direct reports will give you more time to do your work, but is there a potential of struggling AVP's?
- Then the VP would have to do more management.

Max Holmes:
- We'll look for people with managerial experience to be AVP.

Alim Lakhialov:
- Will the increase in hours create advantages?
- What about the budgetary implications?

Max Holmes:
- The advantages will include having an AVP Academic Affairs who can work on a number of issues such as undergraduate research and experiential learning and co-op programs, and who can support the Student Senate Caucus, meet with the UBC Ombudsperson and Provost, help the undergraduate societies, etc.
- It will also mean having an AVP University Affairs to fulfill the traditional role that the AVP did before, reviewing University policies, reviewing our advocacy policies, etc.
- The disadvantages include an increase in the budget.
- There’s also still a gap on Indigenous issues.
- And there may be less work in the future for the Academic Affairs side after a Senate Governance review.

Business Forecast – Keith Hester
- Looking now at a business contribution of $862,313 (up from the $650,432 forecast in the budget).
- Making changes (but not renovations) to various business outlets:
  - Pie R Squared: New thin crust pizza.
  - Blue Chip: A bring your own cup program. Also a new coffee supplier.
  - Honour Roll: Introducing green tea ice cream.
  - Pit Pub: Bringing back sports and programs.
  - Gallery Lounge: More appetizers.
  - Porch: New items.
  - Ph Tea: Possibly bubble waffles.
  - Grand Noodle: New sous chef.
  - I Wanna Taco: Adding some music.
  - Conferences & Catering: More outside sales (on campus, but outside the Nest).
• Conferences & Catering brings in 22% of our revenue (the biggest percentage).
• We get 16% from Blue Chip, which is down a bit because of competition from Starbucks etc.
• Conferences & Catering is also the biggest business contributor (providing 25% of the contribution).
• Tenanted spaces produce 15% (and $44 per square foot).
• The Subway in the new Life Building is a bit of a threat to the Porch, but we’re thinking it’s less than we first thought because the Porch is not really a sandwich place.
• The Stellar Food Cart has been purchased but is not out yet owing to unforeseen health regulation issues.
• The Pit Pub was losing its identity, so now we’re focusing on making it more of a sports bar.
• The thin crust pizza at Pie R has been very well accepted.
• Pie R is also going to push its soft serve ice cream more.
• Blue Chip has been very successful.
• We introduced donburi at the Honour Roll, and it’s been successful.
• Going to be reviewing the menu at Grand Noodle Emporium and will be offering beer.

Questions

Julian Villafuerte Diaz:
• Great to see the businesses are doing well.
• Because of that, are we thinking of lowering prices or raising wages?
• Considering what the AMS is, can we take advantage of this large business contribution?

Keith Hester:
• We have been in deficit, so the money has been going to reducing the deficit.
• Also to the Endowment Fund, which goes to Student Services.
• And we’re doing a lot of sustainability things.

Sarah Park:
• Don’t we already have a hot dog stand?
• And will it serve vegetarian?

Keith Hester:
• UBC Food Services has a hot dog stand, but you rarely see it.
• Yes, there will be veggie dogs.

Alan Ehrenholz:
• Back to what we’re using the contribution for.
• It’s the first year we’ve gotten such a large one.
• Once we pay off the deficit, yes, pricing will be a consideration.
• Have to see what the competition is doing.

Arash Shadkam:
• Is there a methodology to the menu changes?
Keith Hester:
- Menu engineering is based on feedback and sales.

Adrian Pang:
- How does our soft serve ice cream do in relation to what is offered at the Rain or Shine ice cream outlet (our competitors)?

Keith Hester:
- We decided on soft serve before we knew Rain or Shine was coming.
- They don’t do soft serve; they do scoop, which is a bit different.

Executive Goals – The Executive

- Jakob, the new agenda chair, said things will go out on time.

Ombuds – no update

Historical update – Sheldon Goldfarb
- I have something for Chris too: not a physical gift like the ones Pooja gave, but information. I deal in information.
- This is to answer Chris’s question from last time about why the AMS gave up on indirect elections of the Executive.
- For five years or so in the late 70’s, there were no campus-wide elections of the Executive.
- Instead, Council chose the President and the rest of the Executive.
- There had been all sorts of other structural changes made at the same time which were found to be unwieldy (having all Student Senators sit on Council, creating a second body with powers almost equal to Council).
- The unwieldiness explains why those changes were reversed.
- As to going back to direct elections of the President and the rest of the Executive, the discussions back then centred on leadership.
- The plan originally was to reduce the power of the President and make them more of a coordinator, but then there were complaints about a lack of leadership.
- So it seems that the return to electing a President directly was meant to strengthen the Presidency.

N) Minutes of Council and Committees of Council:

O) Executive Committee Motions:

8. MOVED MAX HOLMES, SECONDED SALLY LIN:

“That Council suspend Code Section IX C, Article 9(b) and 9(c)(ii) to allow Council to approve the job descriptions in the following three motions from the VP Academic and University Affairs office and the VP External office without going through the HR Committee."

Note: Requires 2/3rds

Max Holmes:
- HR has not been able to meet to approve the JD’s, but we need these done now; we need to be hiring people now.

Alex Preiss:
- How long will the suspension last?

The Speaker:
- As long as needed to pass the motions.

Cameron England:
- Have these positions been hired?

Max Holmes:
- We have made offers.
- We need the staff.
- May not have been the best practice but we needed to do this for transition.

Alan Ehrenholz:
- It’s common practice for job descriptions to go up with a note saying “if Council approves.”

Sally Lin:
- The VP External job descriptions are coming late, but we’re just updating and matching what actually happens.

Hannah Xiao:
- If it’s not urgent, why suspend Code?
- Why not just wait till HR Committee can meet?
- Aren’t they able to meet?

Sally Lin:
- Have to ask the HR Committee.
- This is easier than waiting for the next Council meeting.

9. MOVED MAX HOLMES, SECONDED SALLY LIN:

From the Operations Committee

“That Council rescind the current AMS Policy I-7 on expulsion and replace it with the revised ‘I-7: AMS Policy on Suspensions and Expulsions from AMS Property,’ as presented.”

Note: Requires 2/3rds
Pooja Bhatti:
- This was brought to Council in February and shortly after that Operations Committee decided we’d missed a few things.
- So we rewrote it to ensure that this was a policy we could get behind.
- I think it’s an improvement on the last one.
- I provided lots of opportunities for Councillors to speak to me, but no one did.

Cameron England:
- I speak in support of this policy
- I’m glad Operations Committee decided to take a second look after concerns were raised.

Max Holmes:
- This was obviously a difficult policy to create.
- I fully support it.

Chris Hakim:
- If there are any remaining concerns, I encourage you to bring them up now.

Adrian Pang:
- One clarification: Does this apply to Constituency spaces?
- For instance, unlawful activities in the EUS building?

Chris Hakim:
- It applies to all Constituency spaces: Ladha, Engineering, etc.

17. MOVED POOJA BHATTI, SECONDED JOELLA ALLEN: [SCD339-18] [SCD340-18]

From the Operations Committee
“That Council rescind the current AMS Policy I-7 on expulsion and replace it with the revised ‘I-7: AMS Policy on Suspensions and Expulsions from AMS Property,’ as presented.”

From the Operations Committee
“That Council approve the document titled ‘Student Driven Sustainability Strategy’ (previously titled the Lighter Footprint Strategy) as presented.”

Adriana Laurent:
- The name change indicates the focus on consultation; it’s student-driven, and it’s meant to represent student priorities.
• There is a need to collectively create targets.
• We’ve edited the previous six categories and added three:
  o Social sustainability
  o Finance and transparency
  o Biodiversity and climate
• It’s still a living document.
• Meant to link with external policies.
• Important to have an implementation plan.

S) Other Business and Notice of Motions:

20. MOVED ALAN EHRENHOLZ, SECONDED SARAH PARK: [SCD342-18]

“Be it resolved that the Alma Mater Society of UBC Vancouver adopt and add the organizational name as a signatory to the Our Turn Action Plan, and implement the document published.

Be it further resolved that AMS Code and Policies serve as interpretation tools to carrying out implementation.”

Sally Lin:
• This has been a long time coming.
• It’s really just a housekeeping motion, as our name is already on the published document (which is about sexual violence).
• We asked Council last year and got permission to add our name as signatory.
• We have been working with this organization for a year.
• They have been supportive and an advocate.

20. MOVED ALAN EHRENHOLZ, SECONDED SARAH PARK:

Be it further resolved that AMS Code and Policies serve as interpretation tools to carrying out implementation.”

… Carried
For (18): Joella Allen, Bradley Balaton, Pooja Bhatti, Alan Ehrenholz, Cameron England, Laura Finkler, Muse Greenwood, Max Holmes, Forest Kong, Deandra Atmojo (proxy for Daniel Lee), Sally Lin, Daniel Luo, Stephanie Norman, Adrian Pang, Alex Preiss, Julian Villafuerte Diaz, Antony Wang, Evan Zhou

T) Discussion Period

Transportation Update – Sally Lin
- Decided it would be more appropriate to leave this to Cristina to do when she becomes VP External, so no discussion at this time.

SHAPE Committee (Sale of Hatch Art Planning and Execution) – Alan Ehrenholz
- The terms of reference for this ad hoc committee say that if Council feels that the objectives of the committee have not been completed by April 30, 2018, then the committee shall review and revise them.
- We did not complete the terms of reference, so I would like Council’s general consent for SHAPE to discuss its terms of reference.
- (The mandate of this committee is to plan and execute the sale of up to four pieces of art from the AMS Art Collection.)

Bradley Balaton:
- Has SHAPE met?

Alan Ehrenholz:
- Yes, two or three times to discuss a report from the Art Gallery Assistant Manager on three art works we might sell.
- The money from such a sale will be put in the Endowment Fund to hire an events person for the art gallery.
- We’ve had no final report.

Cameron England:
- I agree with referring this to next year’s committee.
- A final report would be beneficial

U) Submissions:
- Policy 131 submission to BoG [SCD343-18]
- Transit submission to BoG [SCD344-18]
- Constituency Handbook [SCD345-18]
- Indigenous Advisory Group meeting summary [SCD346-18]

V) Next Meeting:
- Next Meeting: May 9, 2018

W) Adjournment:
- There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 8:07 pm.

X) Social Activity:
