Sexual Violence Prevention and Respectful Environment Policy Working Group

(Revised September 2018)

1. Preamble

The Alma Mater Society created the Respectful Environment Policy in January of 2014. At the time of the policy's creation, there was no review date mandated nor was any committee assigned as the responsible body for the policy's enforcement or review. In addition, since the creation of the Respectful Environment Policy, the AMS advocated for the creation of a stand-alone Sexual Assault Policy for the university. The AMS was involved in the creation of this policy (UBC Policy 131) and it was adopted by the UBC Board of Governors in April of 2017. Alongside the AMS' advocacy for a University Sexual Assault Policy, work began on the creation of both an internal and external Sexual Assault Policy for the AMS. An external policy (E-6) was adopted by Council in December of 2015 and the creation of an internal policy fell by the wayside. Currently, the External Policy (E-6) is in the process of being reviewed by the responsible Executives and Committee. The AMS will show leadership in demonstrating the seriousness of sexual violence prevention and ensuring accountability to uphold a respectful environment for all associated with the AMS.

2. Duties and Purpose

The Sexual Violence Prevention and Respectful Environment Policy Working Group, hereby referred to as The Working Group, will be created:

- To review, in consultation with all affected groups, the current Respectful Environment Policy and propose any changes
- To review, in consultation with all affected groups, any relevant policies and procedures, including the current Respectful Environment Policy, to address sexual violence within the AMS and its subsidiaries and to propose any changes
- To create, in consultation with all affected groups, an internal policy to address Sexual Violence within the AMS and its subsidiaries that includes procedures for disclosure, reporting, investigation, response, and prevention

3. Membership and Quorum

The Working Group will consist of the following permanent voting members:
