Article 1: Preamble

Section 1.01: Organization Name

(A) The organization shall be known as the “Commerce Undergraduate Society of the University of British Columbia, Vancouver,” hereafter referred to as the CUS.

Section 1.02: Mission

(A) The mission of the CUS shall be to enhance the value of the Bachelor of Commerce degree from the Sauder School of Business at the University of British Columbia while cultivating the personal, professional and academic success of students.

Article 2: Membership

Section 2.01: Qualification

(A) All undergraduate students who are registered at the Sauder School of Business in the Bachelor of Commerce program during the academic year and who have paid their CUS fee are members of the CUS.

(I) Only individuals fulfilling these requirements may be members of the CUS.

Section 2.02: Affordance of Rights

(A) All members of the CUS are afforded the same rights and opportunities to participate in CUS or CUS-related activities.

(I) The above clause notwithstanding, exchange students to the Sauder School of Business shall be deemed to be members of the CUS, except in the matters of:

(a) elections;
(b) referenda;
(c) financial assistance to attend external conferences;
(d) membership in Board of Directors;
(e) or appointment to the Executive Council.

Article 3: Definitions and Interpretations

Section 3.01: List of Definitions

(A) Unless otherwise defined within an article, the following terms shall be interpreted to mean:

(I) “Academic Year”
(a) From the day after Labour Day until the final day of exams in April.

(II) “Academic Terms”

(a) From the day after Labour Day until the last day of classes during the Fall semester in December and the first day of classes in January until the last day of classes during the Winter semester.

(III) “AMS”

(a) The Alma Mater Society of the University of British Columbia, Vancouver, the parent society of the CUS.

(IV) “Announce” or "Distribute"

(a) To make a reasonable effort to communicate with all relevant parties, including posting on the CUS website and other channels as determined by the Vice-President of Marketing and Communications.

(V) “Code of Procedure” or “Code”

(a) The CUS Code of Procedure.

(VI) “Elections Committee”

(a) Appointed by the Elections Committee Chairperson as per the Code of Procedure; consisting of at least three (3) members as is necessitated by the AMS Code of Procedure.

(VII) “Elections Committee Chairperson”

(a) The person charged with the fair and efficient administration of the CUS elections.

(VIII) “Exam Periods”

(a) The time period from the last day of classes in the Fall semester until the first day of classes in January and the time period from the last day of classes in the Winter semester until the end of the academic year.

(IX) “General Membership of the CUS”

(a) The most current count of the individuals who are active members, as provided by the Undergraduate Programs Office.

(X) “Official Turnover Date”

(a) The first day in April.

(XI) “Line-by-line”

(a) The approval of each item that appears on its own line in the annual CUS budget. These items represent any individual budget proposal as received by the Executive Council.
(XII) “Portfolio”

(a) The area of responsibility for the President or a Vice-President, outlined in the Code of Procedure, and the Service Council members who report to that Executive Council member.

(XIII) “Present”

(a) The physical or virtual attendance at a meeting.

(XIV) “Term”

(a) From the incoming turnover date of the elected members of the Board of Directors until the outgoing turnover date of the majority of the Board of Directors.

(XV) “UBC”

(a) The University of British Columbia, specifically, where applicable, Vancouver campus.

Article 4: Governance

Section 4.01: Constitution

(A) This Constitution shall remain the law governing the conduct and activity of the CUS.

Section 4.02: Robert’s Rules of Order

(A) The rules contained in the current edition of Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the CUS in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with this Constitution, the Code of Procedure, the AMS Constitution, Bylaws, and Code of Procedure, or any special rules adopted by the general membership of the CUS from time to time through referenda.

(I) There shall be a copy of Robert’s Rules of Order, Newly Revised available in the Office of the CUS President.

Section 4.03: Other Rules

(A) The Board of Directors may create, by a two-thirds (2/3rds) majority vote, further rules and procedures for the CUS provided that such rules are consistent with, and subservient to, this Constitution.

Section 4.04: Contradiction

(A) Nothing within this Constitution shall be interpreted in such a way as to be inconsistent with the AMS Code of Procedure, Bylaws or Constitution.

Article 5: CUS Code of Procedure

Section 5.01: Scope of the Code of Procedure
(A) The CUS shall be governed by the Code of Procedure, only to be superseded by the CUS Constitution.

Section 5.02: Contradiction

(A) Nothing within the Code of Procedure shall be interpreted in such a way as to be inconsistent with the AMS Code of Procedure, Bylaws or Constitution.

Section 5.03: Amendments to the Code of Procedure

(A) All proposed amendments to the Code of Procedure shall be distributed to the general membership of the CUS at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to their ratification and application, which shall occur only by two-thirds (2/3rds) majority vote of the Board of Directors.

(I) Components of the Code of Procedure may amend automatically and without deliberate action by the Board of Directors should appropriate clauses exist within the Code of Procedure to identify the causal action and specific amendments to result from such an impetus.

Section 5.04: Exemptions and Suspensions of the Code of Procedure

(A) Authority to grant exemptions to or suspensions of the Code of Procedure shall be noted within it and may otherwise occur by two-thirds (2/3rds) majority vote of the Board of Directors at any time.

(I) Such an exemption or suspension may apply for up to a period of time that does not extend beyond the end of the current Board of Directors’ term, or one (1) months’ time, whichever is greater.

Article 6: Board of Directors

Section 6.01: Role of the Board of Directors

(A) The Board of Directors shall represent the general membership of the CUS and act on their behalf to the best of their ability as directed by the general membership of the CUS and the mission of the CUS.

Section 6.02: Composition of the Board of Directors

(A) The Board of Directors shall be composed of:

(I) the following voting members, elected by the general membership of the CUS:

(a) the President;

(b) the Commerce Student Senator;

(c) the AMS Representative;

(d) the First Year Representatives – two (2) representatives;

(e) the Second Year Representatives – two (2) representatives;

(f) the Third Year Representatives – two (2) representatives;
(g) the Fourth Year Representatives – two (2) representatives;

(II) the following non-voting members, elected by the general membership of the CUS:

(a) the Ombudsperson;

(b) any number of other non-voting members, appointed by the Board of Directors.

Section 6.03: Restrictions on Members of the Board of Directors

(A) All members of the Board of Directors must be members of the CUS.

(I) All First Year Representative candidates must hold a First Year student standing as confirmed by the Undergraduate Programs Office as at the election date.

(II) All Second Year Representative candidates must hold a First Year student standing as confirmed by the Undergraduate Programs Office as at the election date.

(III) All Third Year Representative candidates must hold a Second Year student standing as confirmed by the Undergraduate Programs Office as at the election date.

(IV) All Fourth Year Representative candidates must hold a Third or Fourth Year student standing as confirmed by the Undergraduate Programs Office as at the election date.

(V) With the exception of the President’s or Ombudsperson’s seat on the Executive Council, members of the Board of Directors shall not hold any Executive Council or Service Council Positions.

(B) Members of the Board of Directors shall exercise professional judgment and abstain from voting on or discussing matters in which they could reasonably be viewed as not being independent and impartial.

(I) Under such circumstances, such members will inform the Board of any issues regarding their independence and impartiality.

Section 6.04: Board of Director Meetings

(A) Quorum is achieved when sixty percent (60%) of the voting members of the Board of Directors are present.

(I) Seats that have not been filled either due to a vacancy or, in the case of First Year Representatives, a gap in a position’s term, shall not be counted towards the total number of voting members of the Board of Directors of which a portion must be present to achieve quorum.

(B) All voting Board of Directors members have the right to one (1) vote.

(C) No Board of Directors member shall hold more than one (1) voting position on the Board of Directors.

(D) The Chairperson of the Board of Directors will be elected by and from the Board of Directors in accordance with the Code of Procedure and may not be the CUS President.

(E) The Chairperson shall have the same voting rights as any other member and, in the event that an equal number of votes are cast in favour and in opposition of a motion, the motion shall be considered lost.
(I) Should the Board of Directors appoint a Chairperson from the general membership of the CUS rather than elect one from the membership of the Board of Directors, the Chairperson shall not vote under any circumstances and in the event that an equal number of votes are cast in favour and in opposition of a motion, the motion shall be considered lost.

(F) The Board of Directors shall appoint a Vice-Chairperson, in accordance with the Code of Procedure, who shall assume the responsibilities of the Chairperson in their absence or in such a situation as where the Chairperson is unable to fulfil their duties on a temporary basis.

(G) In the absence of both its Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson or their inability to fulfill their duties on a temporary basis, the Board of Directors shall appoint an Acting Chairperson to assume the responsibilities of the Chairperson until such a time as the Chairperson or Vice-Chairperson may resume their role.

(H) Subject to the limitations laid out in this Constitution, Board of Directors meetings may be called by the Chairperson at any time.

(I) The Chairperson shall convene a Board of Directors meeting if petitioned to do so by a quorum of Board of Directors members, the President, a majority vote of Executive Council, or a petition of ten (10) Service Council members.

(J) Board of Directors meetings must be convened:

   (I) at least once per month during the academic year, including during the exam period;

   (II) at least twice between May and August inclusive.

(K) All Board of Directors meetings shall be open to all members of the CUS unless specifically deemed in camera. Only a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of Board of Directors may deem a meeting to be in camera.

(L) Board of Directors meetings must be announced at least seventy-two (72) hours prior to the meeting.

(I) Contrary to the above, the Chairperson may convene a Board of Directors meeting on shorter notice to the general membership of the CUS should a matter arise requiring urgent intervention by the Board of Directors; the Chairperson shall ensure that such a meeting is not convened on less than twenty-four (24) hours’ notice and that the meeting is announced to the general membership as soon as its time has been set, and no more than one such emergency meeting shall be held between two regularly scheduled meetings.

(M) The appointment of proxies for Board of Directors meetings shall be outlined in the Code of Procedure and shall be allowed for all members of the Board of Directors with the following exceptions:

   (I) the Chairperson, who shall be ineligible to appoint a proxy for any and all meetings;

   (II) the Vice-Chairperson, who shall be ineligible to appoint a proxy for any meeting in which they are required to assume the responsibilities of the Chairperson in their absence, but who shall otherwise be entitled to appoint a proxy.

Section 6.05: Responsibilities of the Board of Directors

(A) Responsibilities of the Board of Directors shall be to:
(I) foster a long-term strategy to fairly and efficiently achieve the mission of the CUS;

(II) select and appoint members of the Executive Council prior to the official turnover date, by either itself or a duly delegated committee;

(III) approve an annual budget as presented by the Executive Council;

(IV) manage Board of Director committees as outlined in the Code of Procedure;

(V) receive verbal reports from Executive Council members at least once per month;

(VI) receive written reports from Executive Council members three times per year;

(VII) evaluate and present recommendations for the continuation, discontinuation, or improvement of CUS activities to the incoming Board of Directors prior to turnover;

(VIII) remove an appointed Executive Council member from their position by a two-thirds (2/3rd) majority vote should that person derogate the CUS name or fail to fulfill their duties;

(IX) remove an appointed Service Council member from Service Council by a two-thirds (2/3rd) majority vote should that person derogate the CUS name or fail to fulfill their duties;

(X) ensure each member of the Board of Directors provides accurate contact information for publication on the CUS website;

(XI) carry out and have such other powers and responsibilities as are assigned in the Code of Procedure.

Section 6.06: Responsibilities of a Member of the Board of Directors

(A) Responsibilities of a member of the Board of Directors shall be to:

(I) represent the opinion and position of their respective constituents while adhering to the mission of the CUS;

(II) attend all Board of Directors meetings as scheduled;

(III) ensure due diligence is performed prior to making a decision;

(IV) maintain up-to-date contact information;

(V) actively participate in committees of the Board of Directors;

(VI) carry out and have such other powers and responsibilities as are assigned in the Code of Procedure or Board Member Role Description as assigned by the Human Resources Commission;

(a) Changes to Board Member Role Descriptions must be approved by a simple majority by the Board of Directors before they are implemented.

(VII) Announce and hold office hours at least once per week, totalling no less than one (1) hour;
(a) Certain Members of the Board of Directors may be required to hold additional office hours as outlined in this Constitution;

(VIII) Attend at least two (2) Executive Council Meetings per month.

Section 6.07: Overarching and Residual Powers of the Board of Directors

(A) Powers that are not granted by this Constitution or assigned in the Code of Procedure are granted to the Board of Directors to either execute or assign by simple majority vote.

(B) Any past decision of the Board of Directors, Executive Council, or any Service Council member may be overturned by a two-third (2/3rds) majority vote of the Board of Directors, and the Board of Directors may similarly direct the Executive Council and Service Council members to take a specific action in an area to which this Constitution otherwise grants power by two-thirds (2/3rds) majority vote.

(C) Any decision of the Board of Directors or Executive Council may be overturned by a referendum of the general membership of the CUS.

(D) The Board of Directors may introduce additional self-governing operational procedures as outlined in the Code of Procedure at their discretion.

Section 6.08: The Chairperson of the Board of Directors

(A) The Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall:

(I) prepare and distribute a proposed agenda and any related materials for each Board of Directors meeting forty-eight (48) hours prior to the meeting, provided, however, that such an agenda may be modified thereafter;

(II) submit a continuity report to the Board of Directors pertaining to Board of Directors activities prior to turnover;

(III) issue written notification to individual members of the Board of Directors who miss more than one (1) Board of Directors meeting per term without notifying the appropriate person, as designated by the Chairperson;

(IV) ensure accurate minutes of Board of Directors meetings posted on the CUS website within seventy-two (72) hours of their approval;

(V) exercise due diligence at meetings and refer to the CUS Constitution, Code of Procedure, and Robert’s Rules of Order where there exists a question of order or procedure;

(VI) ensure that this Constitution is signed and dated by all current members of the Board of Directors;

(VII) act strictly as a liaison between the CUS Board of Directors and all external bodies;

(VIII) attend all Board of Directors meetings;

(IX) carry out and have such other powers and responsibilities as are assigned in the Code of Procedure.
Article 7: Executive Council

Section 7.01: Role of the Executive Council

(A) The Executive Council shall carry out their duties to the best of their ability as directed by the Board of Directors and the mission of the CUS.

Section 7.02: Composition of the Executive Council

(A) The Executive Council shall be composed of:

(I) the following voting members, elected by the general membership of the CUS:
   (a) the President;

(II) the following non-voting members, elected by the general membership of the CUS:
   (a) the Ombudsperson;

(III) any number of other voting or non-voting members, appointed by the Board of Directors or a duly delegated committee in accordance with the Code of Procedure.

Section 7.03: Executive Council Meetings

(A) Quorum is achieved when a simple majority of the voting members of the Executive Council are present.

(B) All voting Executive Council positions have the right to one (1) vote.

(C) No Executive Council member shall hold more than one (1) voting position on the Executive Council.

(D) The President shall be the Chair of the Executive Council.

(E) The Chair may only vote to break a tie, but is considered a voting member.

(F) The Vice-Chairperson of the Executive Council shall be determined in the Code of Procedure and who shall assume the responsibilities of the Chairperson in their absence or in such a situation as where the Chairperson is unable to fulfill their duties on a temporary basis.

(G) In the absence of both its Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson or their inability to fulfill their duties on a temporary basis, the Executive Council shall appoint from itself an Acting Chairperson to assume the responsibilities of the Chairperson until such a time as the Chairperson or Vice-Chairperson may resume their role.

(H) Executive Council meetings may be called by the President at any time.

(I) The President shall convene an Executive Council meeting if petitioned to do so by a quorum of Executive Council members.

(J) Executive Council meetings must be convened:

(I) at least twice per month during the academic year (with the exception of exam periods);
(II) at least once during the December exam period, and once during the April exam period;

(III) at least once per month between May and August inclusive.

(K) All Executive Council meetings shall be open to all members of the CUS unless specifically deemed in camera. Only a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of Executive Council may deem a meeting to be in camera.

(L) The appointment of proxies for Executive Council meetings shall be outlined in the Code of Procedure and shall be allowed for all members of the Executive Council with the following exceptions:

(I) the Chairperson, who shall be ineligible to appoint a proxy for any and all meetings;

(II) the Vice-Chairperson, who shall be ineligible to appoint a proxy for any meeting in which they are required to assume the responsibilities of the Chairperson in their absence, but who shall otherwise be entitled to appoint a proxy.

Section 7.04: Responsibilities of the Executive Council

(A) Responsibilities of the Executive Council shall be to:

(I) approve non-reoccurring initiatives, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors and budgetary powers as laid out in this Constitution;

(II) where applicable, select, appoint and oversee the Service Council prior to the official turnover date;

(III) make recommendations to the Board of Directors for reoccurring initiatives to be included in the annual budget and/or to have a corresponding Service Council position created or abolished.

(IV) have the power to remove appointed Service Council members from the Service Council, by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote, for derogation of the CUS name or a failure to fulfill their CUS duties as outlined in the Code of Procedure.

(B) All members of the Executive Council shall:

(I) report regularly to all Executive Council meetings;

(II) provide verbal reports to the Board of Directors at least once per month;

(III) provide written reports to the Board of Directors three times a year;

(IV) keep accurate written records of their meetings and activities and submit a continuity report pertaining to their activities prior to Executive turnover;

(V) hold no other CUS position except as established within the Code of Procedure;

(VI) do such other things as required for the successful operations of the CUS;

(VII) carry out and have such other powers and responsibilities as are assigned in the Code of Procedure.
Responsibilities and Powers of the President

Responsibilities and powers of the President shall be to:

(I) chair all Executive Council meetings;

(II) reserve the right to designate another member as Chair of Executive Council;

(III) make a reasonable effort to meet with any CUS member upon request;

(IV) exercise due diligence at meetings and refer to the CUS Constitution, Code of Procedure, and Robert’s Rules of Order where there exists a question of order or procedure;

(V) enforce compliance with this Constitution;

(VI) supervise and direct the duties of Executive Council and Service Council members;

(VII) assign duties when necessary to any and all Executive Council and Service Council members;

(VIII) act as Spokesperson for the CUS;

(IX) maintain relations and communications with key Sauder School of Business contacts including, but not limited to the Dean and Dean’s Office, the Director of Undergraduate Programs and Undergraduate Programs Office, and the Alumni Office;

(X) coordinate with the other AMS Representative to maintain relations, communications and representation of the general membership of the CUS to the AMS;

(XI) ensure regular attendance of the AMS Student Council by him/herself or an appointed proxy as per AMS Bylaws and Code of Procedure;

(XII) ensure accurate minutes of Executive Council meetings posted on the CUS website within seventy-two (72) hours of their approval;

(XIII) carry out and have such other powers and responsibilities as are assigned in the Code of Procedure.

Responsibilities and Powers of the AMS Representative

Responsibilities and powers of the AMS Representative shall be to:

(I) coordinate with the President of the CUS to maintain relations, communications and representation of the general membership of the CUS to the AMS;

(II) ensure attendance of the AMS Student Council by the AMS Representative or an appointed proxy;

(III) actively participate in AMS Committees;

(IV) attend AMS activities and events to represent the CUS;
(V) announce AMS activities and events to the general membership of the CUS;
(VI) announce CUS activities and events to the AMS;
(VII) promote strong interfaculty relations;
(VIII) carry out and have such other powers and responsibilities as are assigned in the Code of Procedure.

Section 9.02: Adjustments

(A) Should the CUS have an additional AMS Representative, this Constitution shall be amended to reflect the number of Commerce AMS Representatives currently on AMS Council.

(B) Should the CUS lose a seat on AMS Council, this Constitution shall be amended to reflect the number of Commerce AMS Representatives currently on AMS Council.

(I) The Board of Directors shall appoint the Official AMS Representative(s) from the current AMS Representative(s) and the President.

(II) In the above case, any individual(s) not selected as Official AMS Representative(s) will retain voting power on the Board of Directors and any other responsibilities within the CUS.

Article 10: Commerce Student Senator

Section 10.01: Responsibilities and Powers of the Commerce Student Senator

(A) Responsibilities and powers of the AMS Representatives shall be to:

(I) fulfill the duties, responsibilities, and obligations of the position of a Student Senator as dictated by all and any rules and regulations governing the UBC Vancouver Senate;

(II) attend all UBC Senate meetings and, subject to their determination, Student Senate Caucus meetings, representing the best interests of the general membership of the CUS;

(III) liaise with the university community, UBC Administration, President, Board of Governors, and Chancellor;

(IV) actively participate in Senate Committees;

(V) promote strong interfaculty relations;

(VI) carry out and have such other powers and responsibilities as are assigned in the Code of Procedure.

Article 11: Ombudsperson

Section 11.01: Responsibilities and Powers of the Ombudsperson

(A) The responsibilities and powers of the Ombudsperson shall be to:
(I) not be eligible to vote on any committee or council the Ombudsperson is a member of, nor hold any CUS position while serving their term as Ombudsperson;

(II) investigate and make a report based on any: complaint or question that a CUS member has with the CUS and its organizations, directive from the Board of Directors or the Executive Council, or observed violations of this Constitution;

(a) The Ombudsperson must announce within seventy-two (72) hours any such report that finds the CUS has violated this Constitution and identify steps to remedy the violations observed.

(III) recommend a course of action to the Board of Directors or the Executive Council or any of the Society’s organizations where such action is necessitated;

(IV) where possible, be responsible for the resolution of any complaint or question;

(V) represent or ensure representation for any active CUS member in approaching the Sauder School of Business in individual matters;

(VI) make known to the members of the CUS that the Ombudsperson is available for the hearing of complaints or questions by posting on their office door and website specific office hours to be held and contact information;

(VII) announce and hold no less than three (3) office hours per week no less than two (2) days per week during the academic year, excluding exam periods;

(VIII) attend all Board of Directors and Executive Council meetings;

(IX) receive a copy of all written reports from the Executive Council to be held for continuity;

(X) provide verbal reports on all Ombudsperson related activities to the Board of Directors at least once per month;

(XI) have the right to attend any meetings of Councils, Committees, and other bodies of the CUS, including meetings held in camera;
