AMENDED the 14th day of April, 2015. AMENDED the 18th day of April, 2016.
AMENDED the 10th day of April, 2017. AMENDED the 9th day of April, 2018.
AMENDED the 8th day of April, 2019.

ARTICLE I – THE SOCIETY

I.1 – Name

This association shall be called the Medical Undergraduate Society of The University of British Columbia.

I.2 – Vision

The vision of the Society shall be to promote a high quality of education and to promote the general well-being and interests of its Members.

I.3 – Objectives

The Objectives of the Society shall be:

- a) To promote high quality of education for its Members, and
- b) To expand the breadth of the educational experience of its Members, and
- c) To improve the well-being of its Members, and
- d) To serve as the only organization that represents the interests of its Members, including to The University of British Columbia Faculty of Medicine and its various committees, the Senate, the Alma Mater Society, the Canadian Federation of Medical Students, and
- e) To serve as a liaison between individual medical students and the Faculty, and provide support for the individual by representing their interests in a concerned but impartial manner, and
- f) To promote interconnectivity between members at all distributed sites of the Faculty, and
- g) To pursue equitable student experience amongst members across all distributed sites and Clerkships of the Faculty.

I.4 – The Society Logo

The Society Logo is shown in the accompanying design and shall be used in accordance with Bylaw 11, “Acceptable Use of the Society Logo.”

ARTICLE II – MEMBERSHIP

Membership in the Society shall be granted as follows:

II.1 – Active Members

Active Members of the Society shall be all students enrolled in the UBC Faculty of Medicine of The University of British Columbia seeking the undergraduate degree of Doctor of Medicine (M.D.), regardless of the site which the student is located at.

II.2 – Honorary Members

Honorary Members shall include:

- a) Graduates of the MD Undergraduate Program of The University of British Columbia Faculty of Medicine, and
- b) Those individuals upon whom the Society confers honorary membership (refer to 4.1.2e).

ARTICLE III – EXECUTIVE BODIES

III.1 – Council

- a) The affairs of the Society shall be overseen by a Council organized and operated according to the Bylaws of the Society. The Council may exercise all powers of the Society in accordance with the Objectives of the Society, as outlined in Article 1 “The Society,” Section 3 “Objectives”.
- b) The voting Membership of the Council shall consist of all elected Council Members in accordance with Bylaw 3, “Structure of the Society.” The Council shall be charged with the duty of supervising the affairs and activities of the Society, in accordance with the Objectives of the Society, as outlined in Article 1 “The Society,” Section 3 “Objectives.”

III.2 – The Executive

- a) The Executive shall be the body that manages the affairs of the Society. It shall be organized and operated according to the Bylaws of the Society.
- b) Student Council Officers shall compose an Executive consisting of, at a minimum, a President, Past President, IMP Site Lead, NMP Site Lead, SMP Site Lead, and Vice President Finance, in accordance with Bylaw 3, “Structure of the Society.”

- c) The Executive shall be charged with the duty of overseeing the development of Society policy, in accordance with the Objectives of the Society, as outlined in Article 1 “The Society,” Section 3 “Objectives,” through Society standing committees or ad-hoc committees, and that policy shall be directed to the Council for approval.
- d) The Executive does not have the power to ratify or alter Society policy. This right is reserved for the Council.

III.3 – Class Executives

- a) The Class Executives shall be the representative body of each Class. They shall be organized and operated in a manner consistent with the Bylaws of the Society.
- b) The Class Executives shall represent the interests of their respective classes to the Society and to the faculty.

III.4 – Advisors

- a) There shall be Member(s) of the Faculty elected by the Society at the Annual General Meeting to serve in advisory capacities to the Society. A Faculty Advisor and such Associate Faculty Advisors, as approved by the Society, shall serve a two-year term and may be re-elected for a total of four terms normally, unless otherwise determined by the Society.

ARTICLE IV – AUTHORITATIVE DOCUMENTS

IV.1 – Authoritative Documents

IV.1.1 – Constitution

The constitution shall contain the foundational principles and definitions of the structure and operation of the Society. The constitution shall have binding authority over the actions and proceedings of the Society.

IV.1.2 – Bylaws

The Bylaws shall further define the regular operation and structure of the Society.

IV.2 – Enactment, Amendment and Repeal of the Constitution or Bylaws

- a) The Constitution or Bylaws of the Society may be enacted, amended, or repealed by:
 - i. Resolution of the Society passed by two-thirds (2/3) Majority Vote of Active Members at the Annual General Meeting, or
 - ii. Resolution of the Society passed by a two-thirds (2/3) Majority Vote of Active Members at a Special General Meeting of the Society duly called for the purpose of considering the enactment, amendment or repeal of the Constitution, or

- iii. Referendum held in accordance with Bylaw 9, "Referenda."
- b) An Amendment to the Constitution or Bylaws may be proposed by:
 - i. Any Active Member provided that the proposed amendment is signed by five percent (5%) of the Active Members and delivered to the Vice President Communications Jr., or
 - ii. A Resolution of the Council, or
 - iii. Any Council member with the unanimous agreement of the Executive, or
 - iv. The Constitution & Bylaws Committee
- c) The Vice President Communications Jr. shall immediately upon receipt of such proposed amendments referred to in this Article shall:
 - i. Provide the proposed amendments to the Active Membership via e-mail, and
 - ii. Post said amendments in a conspicuous location on the Society website, and
 - iii. Submit said amendments to Council for discussion at the first meeting of Council held after their receipt by the Vice President Communications Jr.
- d) Not less than thirty (30) and not more than sixty (60) days after posting of the proposed amendments, Council shall submit said amendment to the Society at an Annual General meeting or Special General meeting, or by referendum, as provided in this Article. Notice of intention to repose any amendments shall be given in the notice convening the Annual General meeting or Special General meeting or calling the referendum.

ARTICLE V – DISSOLUTION

In the event of dissolution of the Society, after resolving its debts and obligations, the Society shall devote any remaining assets to the promotion of one or more objects of the Society if feasible, and if not, the Society shall donate its remaining assets to the Faculty of Medicine of The University of British Columbia to be put towards the creation of a new Scholarship for undergraduate medical students if feasible, and if not, to a Canadian charity or charities, which the Society shall select.

- b) Student Media Spokesperson Roles and Responsibility
 - i. Be available for media interviews and commentaries
 - ii. Connect with the Faculty of Medicine Communications Department and participate in media training sessions conducted by the Communications Department if a media interview is requested, or if specific coaching is required for an interview.
 - iii.

Appendix 2- Financial Policies

- a) The financial details of the MUS, including the complete annual budget and bank account balances, are not to be disseminated to individuals or groups who do not currently belong to the MUS.
- b) The VP Finance, in consultation with the Finance Committee, may enact changes to these Financial Policies as necessary during their term to meet the financial needs of the MUS.
- c) The financial accounts of the MUS, which is a UBC student society, are held under those of the Alma Mater Society (AMS) at UBC. The MUS must comply with the financial policies and procedures of the AMS.
- d) The MUS is not a charitable organization, and therefore cannot issue tax deductible receipts for donations. The MUS can provide a non-profit number (through the AMS) for external contributions.
 - i. Tax-deductible donations may, however, be made to services and facilities at the Medical Student and Alumni Centre (MSAC), which is a separate institution from the MUS. Those interested in donating to the MSAC may be referred to Nancy Thompson.
- e) All payments to the MUS must be addressed to “Medical Undergraduate Society c/o AMS”.
- f) Surplus funds available at the end of each year shall be automatically placed into the variable fund portion of the budget for consideration for use by the MUS Council.
- g) The MUS is to maintain a contingency fund of at least $150,000 (equal to one year’s budget) calculated at the end of each financial year.

- h) The MUS may act as the receiver of contributions by any external group (e.g. Doctors of BC) on behalf of specific MUS clubs and student initiatives, and forward these contributions to the recipient clubs and initiatives either in advance of spending or through reimbursement of spending.
- i) Payments to the MUS (by students or external organizations) should be in the form of cheques, not cash or other form of currency, unless otherwise allowed by the VP Finance.
- j) Reimbursements (including reimbursement form and receipts) for MUS-sponsored spending must be submitted to the VP Finance as physical copies unless otherwise allowed by the VP Finance.
- k) Refer to Bylaw 8.1 for policies related to clubs funding and the operation of the Clubs Committee.
- l) The distributed sites (NMP, SMP, IMP) have flexibility in allocating annual budgets at the discretion of each distributed site's Vice President to better match distributed site student needs.
- m) The MUS may provide advance funding for the events/services listed below, with the designated compensation scheme:
 - i. MUS provides up-front funding for the annual first-year event, Camp Make Friends, and is reimbursed in full by student payments.
 - ii. MUS provides up-front funding for the annual event, MedBall, and is reimbursed in full by student payments.
 - iii. MUS provides up-front funding for the annual NMP event, Spring Ball, and is reimbursed by student payments and/or the cost is deducted from the allotted NMP budget.
 - iv. MUS provides payment of student membership fees to the Canadian Federation of Medical Students (CFMS) following receipt of these fees from students.
 - v. MUS provides payment of the annual Toronto Notes order following receipt of student payments.
 - vi. MUS provides complete payment to PageNet for 3rd year student pagers. There is approximately a 30%/70% split of the costs with the Faculty of Medicine. The Faculty of Medicine will reimburse the MUS 70% of the costs of 3rd year pagers.
 - vii. MUS provides an annual loan to the Graduation Committee. The loan is reimbursed in full by the Graduation Committee at the end of each year. This is separate from the amount allotted to the Graduation Committee in the MUS budget.
- n) The VP Finance, in coordination with the Finance Committee, shall conduct an annual end-of-the-year analysis of budget spending by all MUS-funded departments to calculate annual deficit or surplus. In the case of surplus, leftover funds may be applied to the Variable Use fund except in certain circumstances:
 - i. Surplus clubs budgets may be added to the next year's total clubs budget for redistribution.

- ii. Surplus PAC travel budgets may be added to the next year's total PAC travel budget.
- o) The MSAC pays for gym repairs on behalf of the MUS, and then submits invoices to the MUS to be reimbursed.
- p) Funding for limitations for specific MUS-sponsored activities are below:
- q) Clubs may spend their designated funding on the events proposed in their funding applications. Several policies apply:
 - i. Speakers who are current UBC MD students (i.e. are current members of the MUS) cannot receive gifts from MUS-sponsored club budgets.
 - i. Alcohol may not be purchased using MUS-sponsored club budgets.
 - ii. CFMS conference funding includes accommodation and transport, not food.
