Report of March 2014

BusinessFaculty Cup (Friday March 7, 2014)

The revival of Faculty Cup was a success! Eight faculties came out to compete, with over 200 people representing their respective. We received a lot of positive feedback and plan to bring it back next year with changes and improvements to the planning committee structure and event structure. There will be a full transition report for this specific event. Huge congratulations to the Faculty Cup Planning Committee and the members of SLCC involved in the initiative.

Spirit Week

This was a project taken on by a specific member of the committee. The idea was the partner with The Calendar to hold events promoting campus spirit leading up to Faculty Cup. However, funding and timelines became a restraint on the project, and will be continued next year.

Goals for Next Year

- Work on Communications portion of the committee portfolio more
- Continue on with structure of All-Presidents Dinner. Transition report to come soon
- Continue to work with constituencies and UBC REC for Faculty Cup – this year's structure worked well but can still be improved. Transition report by Faculty Cup coordinators will be coming soon
- Build upon Faculty Cup and Spirit Week ideas

We will be holding one more meeting to discuss our projects throughout the year and improvements for next year. SLCC accepts new ideas and projects on a rolling basis. If there are any projects you would like to see, feel free to email me at slcom@ams.ubc.ca.
