

ATTACHMENT #1 - POLICY CHANGE: POLICY I-3

Number & Title # I-3 – Responsible Use of Students' Email Addresses

Effective Date:

April 9, 2020

Approval Date:

April 9, 2020

Review Date:

This policy shall be reviewed every five (5) years

Responsible Committee:

Executive Committee

Authority:

AMS Code of Procedure Section II, Article 11(1)

“Council may create external and internal policies as well as combined policies.”

Purpose and Goals:

This policy is designed to:

1. Commit the AMS to secure and responsible use of students' email addresses for campus-wide emails.
2. Align the AMS with the University's desires that campus-wide email be limited to uses consistent with the academic, student and campus life and research and administrative objectives of the University.
3. Secure the access required by the AMS to students' email addresses to facilitate its elections and to communicate with its members.

Applicability:

This policy is applicable to all campus-wide emails distributed by the AMS.

Exclusions:

1. This policy does not apply to:
 - a. Emails distributed by Constituencies, Clubs, and other subsidiaries of the AMS

Definitions:

For the purposes of this policy:

Address shall mean an email address of a member of the AMS.

Campus-wide email shall mean an email distributed to every AMS member.

Emergency shall mean an unexpected event or situation that poses a recent, immediate, or probable threat to a large number of UBC students' personal safety, security, or well-being, and which requires a time-sensitive response by the AMS.

Targeted

email shall mean an email distributed to specific segments of the AMS membership, such as to AMS members in a specific AMS Constituency or Club.

Policy:

1. Campus-wide emails shall only be used for purposes consistent with the objects, vision, and mission of the AMS as reflected in its Constitution, Mission Statement, and other governing documents.
2. The AMS shall send a maximum of two (2) campus-wide emails per month unless there is an emergency where information needs to be disseminated.
3. Notwithstanding paragraph (2) above, if there is a need to send a third campus-wide email in a single month, it may be done as long as the Executive Committee approves the third email.
4. The emails shall be used to communicate various forms of information, including but not limited to:
 - a. Information about upcoming AMS elections and referenda'
 - b. Information about time-sensitive emergency issues;
 - c. Information welcoming students to UBC and the AMS;
 - d. Information regarding AMS student surveys;
 - e. Information promoting AMS-run or AMS-sponsored events as well as AMS clubs, services, and businesses.
5. The AMS shall prohibit the transmission of the following types of information over campus-wide email.
 - Information that discloses personal information about an individual without their consent or otherwise violates their rights under the privacy laws or any other laws.
 - Pirated software, destructive software, pornographic materials, libelous statements or any other information that may injure someone or lead to a lawsuit or criminal charges.
 - Emails with the primary purpose of advertising for commercial enterprises, with the exception of AMS-owned business and AMS lessees.
 - Information that assumes identity or role of another person, organization, or entity through deception or without proper authorization.

6. The AMS shall implement a process whereby all requests for the transmission of information through campus-wide email pass through the Communications Manager of the AMS or in consultation with the President, thereby ensuring a single final point of decision-making concerning which communications may be sent to students.
7. The AMS will take measures to ensure the safeguarding of students' addresses in accordance with confidentiality and privacy regulations, along with policies restricting access to addresses within the AMS.
8. Targeted emails may be sent to communicate the same sorts of information that may be communicated in campus-wide emails in accordance with paragraph 4 above and are subject to the limitations on campus-wide emails enumerated in paragraph 5 above.
9. Targeted emails may be sent no more than twice a month to any one segment of the AMS membership unless the Executive Committee approves an additional email or if the email is of an emergency nature as defined elsewhere in this policy or in University policies.
10. Before a targeted email may be sent, the Communications Manager must seek the consent of the President of the relevant AMS Constituency, Club, or other body unless such an email is required to establish a Constituency or unless the email is of an emergency nature, in which case the Communications Manager must seek the approval of the AMS President and the AMS Executive Director.
