The submitted material may be audited at the discretion of the Elections Committee. Additional statements may be considered at the discretion of the Elections Committee, but in no case more than nine (9) days after the end of the Official Campaign Period.

(b) The Elections Committee shall assess each candidate the market cost or the actual cost, whichever is higher, for each declared campaign expenditure. A candidate’s total assessment must not exceed the upper limit for campaign expenses set by the Committee in accordance with paragraph 9(a) above.

(c) All candidates who submit proper expense statements shall be considered as having applied for reimbursement of those expenses.

(d) Candidates shall be reimbursed for each of their actual expenditures up to market cost. Reimbursement shall be made only for expenditures on forms of campaigning permitted by paragraph 6(f).

(e) Minor supplies (tape, staples, etc.) as determined by the Elections Committee need not be declared on the statement of expenses.

(f) If an organization to which a candidate belongs spends money on campaign materials explicitly endorsing that candidate, the money so spent shall be counted as part of that candidate’s expenses when determining whether the candidate remained within the campaign spending limits, but the candidate shall not be eligible for reimbursement for such expenses. The term “campaign materials” in this provision does not include the publication of written endorsements by media outlets.

If the Elections Committee discovers an endorsement unknown to a candidate, it shall inform that candidate, who shall then have twenty-four (24) hours to accept it or reject it; the Elections Committee may at its discretion extend this period in exceptional circumstances.

(c) Candidates who accept a third party endorsement must state whether that third party will be solely an endorser or also a financial supporter.

(d) Any spending by a financial supporter on campaign materials explicitly endorsing a candidate shall be counted as part of that candidate’s expenses when determining whether the candidate remained within the campaign spending limits, but the candidate shall not be eligible for reimbursement for such expenses. The term “campaign materials” in this provision does not include the publication of written endorsements by media outlets.

(e) If a third party endorser who has not been accepted as a financial supporter begins spending money on campaign materials explicitly endorsing a candidate, that candidate may notify the Elections Committee that they no longer accept the endorsement, at which point the Elections Committee shall determine how much of the spending will be counted as part of that candidate’s expenses. If the candidate decides to continue accepting the endorsement, the third party shall be considered a financial supporter, and the rules in paragraph (d) shall apply.

Article 3. Violations and Penalties

1. The Elections Committee may penalize any candidate and determine the penalty for campaigning in violation of the campaign rules in Article 2(6) above and for any other breach of the Electoral Procedures and any other election irregularity.

2. For serious offences, as defined in the Candidates’ Handbook, the Elections Committee may disqualify a candidate. If they decide not to disqualify, they must impose at least one of the penalties for intermediate offences.

3. For intermediate offences, as defined in the Candidates’ Handbook, the Elections Committee may withdraw one or more of a candidate’s campaign rights, including, but not limited to, the rights enumerated in Article 2(6) above. However, the Committee shall not remove a candidate’s right to have an interview published in a campus publication pursuant to Article 2(4) above. And the Committee shall not remove a candidate’s right to have a picture and a statement on the election website and on the ballot. If the Elections Committee decides not to impose the penalties for intermediate offences, they must impose the at least one of the penalties for minor offences.
4. For minor offences, as defined in the Candidates’ Handbook, the Elections Committee may withhold a candidate’s reimbursement for campaign expenses and may reduce their spending limit.

5. The Elections Committee may, at its discretion, issue a warning rather than imposing a penalty for minor offences, especially in the case of a first offence.

6. The Elections Committee shall not deduct votes as a penalty in any election or referendum.

7. If serious offences have been committed by more than one candidate in an election, the Elections Committee may declare the results of that election invalid.

8. If serious offences have been committed in a referendum, the Elections Committee may declare the results of that referendum invalid.

9. For similar offences in the same election or referendum, the Elections Committee shall impose similar penalties, except for repeat offenders.

4. Staff resources shall be made available to assist the drafters of potential referendum questions to assist them in an impartial and confidential manner. Staff providing such assistance shall do so in an impartial manner and shall not discuss potential questions except with members of Council or the Society’s senior managers.

(c) If Council decides to support a side, it must abide by all campaign rules set out in the Code or in the Referendum Handbook. It must also make public its campaign expenditures.

8. Yes and No committees:

(d) In the case of a referendum initiated by petition, the petitioning side shall be deemed to have fulfilled the requirements of paragraph (b) above, provided that it includes on the petition for a referendum a list of committee members as required by paragraph (b).

(e) When originally submitting its petition for funding, a Yes or No committee must consist of five members. 9. The Chief Electoral Officer shall organize a Referendum Meeting to take place no later than seven (7) days prior to the referendum. At this meeting, the Chief Electoral Officer shall provide interested parties with information about the parts of the Electoral Procedures relevant to referenda and shall distribute a copy of a referendum handbook to interested parties. If the referendum is taking place in conjunction with elections, the Referendum Meeting may be combined with the All-Candidates Meeting.
10. The referendum handbook shall contain a summary and explanation of the parts of these Electoral Procedures relevant to referenda. The handbook shall also include a summary and explanation of rules and regulations relevant to referenda which are not in these Electoral Procedures.

Staffing times shall be at the discretion of the Elections Committee, but each polling station must be staffed for at least four (4) hours per voting day during Society elections and referenda.

3. The election or referendum shall be advertised in a campus publication or publications as determined by the Elections Committee.

4. Except in the case of by-elections, paper ballot elections, or other special elections, voting during Society elections and referenda through electronic or paper means shall be available for at least five (5) school days.

5. (a) The Elections Committee shall ensure that each polling station has the equipment and personnel required to conduct the voting in an efficient and secure manner, making sure to preserve the secrecy of each voter’s ballot and ensuring that voters are properly informed about voting procedures and how to mark their ballots.

   (b) Instructions on voting procedures shall be clearly posted at each polling station.

6. (a) Each candidate shall be permitted to have a picture and a statement on the election website and on the ballot, the word limit and picture size to be determined by the Elections Committee. The deadline for submission of the picture and statement shall be set by the Elections Committee and publicized in the Candidates’ Handbook.

   (b) Each Yes or No committee in a referendum shall be permitted to have a statement on the election website, the word limit to be determined by the Elections Committee. The deadline for submission of the statement shall be set by the Elections Committee and publicized in the Referendum Handbook.

7. The Elections Committee shall take whatever steps necessary to ensure that only eligible voters cast ballots and to ensure that each eligible voter votes only once.
8. Poll Clerks

Once hired, a poll clerk shall not work as a volunteer or otherwise assist in any way in any candidate’s campaign or in any referendum campaign.

   (c) Poll clerks shall:

   (i) manage voting stations (including opening and closing, enforcing campaign regulations, and safeguarding electoral equipment);

   (ii) communicate any technical difficulties at the polling stations to the Chief Returning Officer;

   (iii) clean up candidate posters and other promotional material after the end of elections as required; and

   (iv) have such other powers and duties as are outlined in the Bylaws or the Code or assigned by the Elections Committee, the Chief Electoral Officer, or the Chief Returning Officer from time to time.

Article 6. Ballots

1. In Executive elections, candidates may choose to have their full name appear on the ballot as it appears on their UBC card or they may choose to have any combination of their given names or initials of their given names appear along with their surname. At the discretion of the Chief Electoral Officer, candidates may choose to have a reasonable nickname appear on the ballot in place of or in addition to their given names, as long as the nickname does not indicate affiliation to a group and as long as it is not obscene or libellous or an attack on other candidates.

2. For all ballots, if possible, various versions shall be prepared with the names of the candidates listed in different random orders on each version, so that voters will not all vote on identically ordered ballots.

3. In Executive elections, the positions to be voted on shall appear in the following order on the ballot:

   (a) President;
(b) Vice-President Academic and University Affairs;
(c) Vice-President Finance;
(d) Vice-President Administration; and
(e) Vice-President External.

4. If elections are being conducted for other organizations, those positions shall appear on the ballot after the Executive positions in the following order:

(a) University Board of Governors;
(b) University Senate;
(c) Ubyssey Publications Society;
(d) Student Legal Fund Society; and
(e) any other organizations.

5. On referendum ballots, “Yes” shall appear above “No” or to the left of it.

Article 7. Counting of Ballots and Release of Results

1. The Elections Committee shall take whatever measures necessary to ensure the security of the ballots and the balloting process.

2. Ballot counting: General

(a) The Elections Committee shall take all measures necessary to ensure that an accurate count of the ballots cast is obtained.

(b) The Elections Committee shall take all measures necessary to ensure that only validly cast ballots are counted.

(c) The Chief Returning Officer and at least one (1) other member of the Elections Committee must be present at all times during ballot counting.

3. Ballot Counting System

(a) Ranked ballots shall be used for Executive elections. The voters shall be asked to rank candidates for each position using numeral marks, with “1” indicating the most preferred, “2” the second most preferred, and so on.

(b) Identically marked (or unmarked) candidates shall be counted equally, with no preference between them.

(c) Candidates who are not ranked shall be considered to have a lower preference than any ranked candidate.
(d) The ballot shall contain the following statement: “Rank the candidates on the ballot using numbers, with 1 indicating the most preferred, 2 the second most preferred, and so on. You may leave blanks; these will be counted as your lowest preference. You may also give equal rankings, for instance ranking two candidates as your number 1 choice.”

(e) The Condorcet voting method with Ranked Pairs shall be used to determine the winner for each Executive position:

(i) The set of all unique candidate pairs for that position shall be established.

(ii) For each unique pair of candidates on each ballot, if the ballot indicates a preference for one of the candidates over the other, then a tally of one shall be counted for the preferred candidate, within that candidate pair. If the ballot does not indicate a preference for one of the candidates over the other, then no tally shall be counted within that pair.

(iii) Within each pair, the absolute difference between the candidates' tallies shall be called the “margin of victory” for that pair. Once all ballots cast have been tallied, the pairs shall be ordered in decreasing order of margin of victory beginning with the largest margin of victory and ending with the smallest. Starting with the pair with the largest margin of victory and progressing to the smallest margin of victory, it shall be determined whether the candidate preference in each pair is compatible with all previously determined preferences (i.e. introduces no circular ambiguities or contradictions). If the preference is incompatible or there is a tie, the result from that pair shall be ignored. Otherwise, the candidates' names shall be joined by a “greater than” sign (>) from the winner to the loser (it may be possible to express some preferences more compactly in a chain, as A>B>C).

(iv) Once all pairs have been processed, if there is only one candidate that is greater than all other candidates, (i.e., at the front of all chains) this candidate shall be declared the winner.

(v) If there is no clear winner as defined in paragraph (iv) above, the election shall be decided by a coin toss or some other method that ensures a random result.

4. (a) Ballot counting shall be completed no more than two (2) hours after the close of polling on the last day of polling.

(b) As soon as the counting has been completed in Executive elections, the Chief Electoral Officer shall release “partial unofficial results,” to include only the winners for each Executive race. “Full unofficial results” for Executive elections shall be withheld for no less than forty-eight (48) hours and no more than seventy-two (72) hours after the release of the partial unofficial results to allow winning candidates to withdraw. In the case of Society referenda, “unofficial results,” consisting of the number of votes received by each side, shall be released by the Chief Electoral Officer as soon as the counting has been completed. The results of Executive elections and Society referenda shall be official only when received by Council.

(c) If a winning candidate withdraws from an Executive election before the release of the “full unofficial results,” a new winner shall be determined by recounting the ballots using the procedure described above in paragraph 3(e), but excluding all candidate pairs in which the withdrawn candidate appears.

5. Results for elections conducted for other organizations shall be released in accordance with the agreements made with those organizations. In the case of elections to the Board of Governors and Senate, a formal letter shall be sent to the UBC Vancouver Registrar’s Office (or other University office responsible for elections) to certify that the rules in force for University elections have been followed. Results for the elections to the Board of Governors and Senate may be released once approval has been received from the Registrar’s Office (or other University office responsible for elections).

6. Records of elections and referenda shall be kept intact until the results become official by being presented to Council and shall then be stored for a year where technically feasible.

7. Presentation of results

(a) The Chief Electoral Officer shall prepare a written report on the election or referendum, including the results, such results to include the number of votes received by each candidate in the election and the number of votes received by each side in the referendum. The Chief Electoral Officer shall present the report to Council once any complaints or appeals pending before the Elections Committee or an Election Appeals Committee have been ruled on in accordance with Article 8 below.

(b) Once the Chief Electoral Officer’s report is presented to Council, the results shall be official and binding upon the Society. A Resolution of Council to receive or approve the report is not required for the results to be binding. Once the results have been presented to Council, the Chief Electoral Officer shall publish them in a campus publication or publications.

Article 8. Interpretations, Rulings, Complaints, and Appeals

1. During an election or referendum, the Chief Electoral Officer, or their designate in the case of a conflict of interest, may make preliminary rulings and interpretations which must be ratified by the Elections Committee within forty-eight (48) hours. Decisions of the Chief Electoral Officer regarding the approval of campaign material need not be ratified by the Elections Committee; but such decisions may be appealed to the Elections Committee in accordance with the appeal procedures in paragraph 2 below.

2. Protests or complaints of irregularities regarding candidates, referendum campaign groups, or election officials may be submitted to the Elections Committee, provided that the protest or complaint is in writing, is signed by at least three (3) Active Members, and is submitted no more than three (3) school days after the close of balloting. The Elections Committee must reach a decision on the protest or complaint no more than twenty-four (24) hours after it has been received in person by a member of the Committee.

3. Rulings and interpretations made by the Chief Electoral Officer and ratified by the Elections Committee in accordance with paragraph 1 above, and decisions made by the Elections Committee regarding protests or complaints as described in paragraph 2 above, may be appealed to an Election Appeals Committee.

4. An Election Appeals Committee shall consist of:

   (c) one (1) representative of the Elections Committee.

5. In the absence of the Speaker of Council, Election Appeals Committees shall be chaired by a person designated by the Speaker.

6. In the case of an appeal of a ruling or interpretation made by the Chief Electoral Officer, the appellant must submit an application in writing to the Administrative Assistant no more than forty-eight (48) hours after the Elections Committee ratifies the ruling or interpretation. The Administrative Assistant shall immediately forward the application to the Chair of the Election Appeals Committee.

7. In the case of an appeal of a decision made by the Elections Committee, the appellant must submit an application in writing to the Administrative Assistant no more than forty-eight (48) hours after the Elections Committee has made its decision. The Administrative Assistant shall immediately forward the application to the Chair of the Election Appeals Committee.

8. The appellant’s application must include:

   (a) a description of the issue in question;
   (b) a report of the decision being appealed;
   (c) a statement of the remedy being sought;
   (d) a description of the errors allegedly made by the Chief Electoral Officer or the Elections Committee; and

(e) the name of the representative the appellant wishes to see appointed to the Election Appeals Committee.

9. The appellant must also provide copies of all supporting documents that the appellant wishes to have considered by the Election Appeals Committee.

10. On receiving the appellant’s application, the Chair of the Election Appeals Committee shall decide whether it meets the requirements of paragraphs 8 and 9 above. If it does, the Chair of the Election Appeals Committee shall notify the Elections Committee of the appeal, provide it with a copy of all relevant documentation, and invite it to name a representative to the Election Appeals Committee. If the Elections Committee fails to name a representative, the Chair of the Election Appeals Committee shall name a representative for them.

11. The Elections Committee shall make a written response to the appellant’s application.

12. The two representatives named to an Election Appeals Committee must be Active Members and must not be candidates in any ongoing Society election or any ongoing election being conducted for another organization by the Society. They must also not be members of Council, the Executive Committee, or the Elections Committee. Appellants may not represent themselves on Election Appeals Committees.

13. Once constituted, an Election Appeals Committee shall create procedures as it sees fit to deal with the issue before it.

14. After receiving an appeal application submitted in accordance with the provisions of this Article, an Election Appeals Committee may overturn a decision of the Chief Electoral Officer or the Elections Committee if it determines that in arriving at that decision:

(a) the Chief Electoral Officer or the Elections Committee acted in a manner inconsistent with the Electoral Procedures in the Code or with the procedures contained in the candidates’ handbook issued by the Elections Committee;

(b) the Chief Electoral Officer or the Elections Committee failed to consider relevant evidence;

(c) the Chief Electoral Officer or the Elections Committee acted in an obviously unfair manner; or

(d) the Chief Electoral Officer or the Elections Committee imposed inconsistent penalties for similar offences in the same election or referendum.

15. If the Election Appeals Committee decides to overturn a decision of the Chief Electoral Officer or the Elections Committee in accordance with paragraph 14 above, it may:
(a) substitute its own decision for that of the Chief Electoral Officer or the Committee; or

(b) order the Elections Committee to reconsider the decision.

16. An Election Appeals Committee must hold its first meeting concerning an application made in accordance with paragraphs 6 or 7 above no more than forty-eight (48) hours after the submission of that application.

17. An Election Appeals Committee must come to a decision no more than twenty-four (24) hours after holding its first meeting.

18. The decision of an Election Appeals Committee must consist of the following elements:

   (a) the decision itself;
   (b) the reasons for the decision; and
   (c) a dissenting opinion if there is one.

19. All the elements of the decision referred to in paragraph 18 must be in writing, and copies must be given to the appellant, the Elections Committee, and Council.

20. (a) No protests or complaints of irregularities regarding candidates, referendum campaign groups, or election officials may be submitted to an Election Appeals Committee unless they have first been submitted to and ruled on by the Elections Committee in accordance with the procedures prescribed in this Article.

   (b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) above, a complaint may be submitted to an Election Appeals Committee before the Elections Committee has ruled on it if:

      (i) the Elections Committee has failed to rule on it within a reasonable time; or
      (ii) the Election Appeals Committee determines that it would be unreasonable to wait for a decision by the Elections Committee.

21. Candidates and other persons involved in elections or referenda must comply with rulings of the Chief Electoral Officer and the Elections Committee even if those rulings are in the process of being appealed to an Election Appeals Committee. Only if an Election Appeals Committee overturns a ruling may compliance with it cease.
