    ▪ Drafting a ToR for the new subcommittee.
    ▪ It will encompass the role of SHAPE and the old SAC committees, including the day-to-day operations of the gallery and upkeep of the permanent art collection.
    ▪ Will ask Council to roll SHAPE into this new committee.
    ▪ SHAPE will be disbanded in favour of this new committee, whose name is yet to be determined.

• Cole:
  o There’s also a Hatch Art Gallery working group.

• Sylvester:
  o I don’t think it’s active.
  o The new ToR will be more comprehensive.

- April 12 soft launch:
  - UBC and the AMS launching their campaigns.
  - Warming people up to the idea.
  - Social media.
  - Facts, impact on students.

- April 19 hard launch:
  - Call to action.
  - Fill out survey.
  - Video.
  - Aiming at commuter students.

- Meeting with mayors on the Mayors Council, along with UBC staff and faculty, a GSS rep, and a student at large.

* Georgia:*
  - Engaging with the unions?
  - Staff perspective?
  - Labour standpoint?

* Kalith:*
  - That’s why there are two campaigns.
  - The AMS is running a student-centric campaign.
  - UBC will be bringing staff and faculty members.
  - Extending the SkyTrain to UBC will be beneficial not only to students, but to anyone travelling in Metro Vancouver.
  - There will also be an economic impact and sustainability benefits.
  - UBC is working with the unions.

* Georgia:*
  - Good to work with the administrative staff, CUPE, the Faculty Association, and the TA’s (who are graduate students).

Tuition

* Georgia:*
  - Vote on tuition in upcoming Board of Governors cycle.
  - Great time to let students know to tune into the Board meeting.
  - Concerning the AMS, I’m looking back at our affordability policy: thinking of how to bring this back to AMS Council.
  - Thinking of bringing a motion to Council to condemn the tuition increase, especially in light of the pandemic.
  - There’s also the allocations issue: $18 million will come from the tuition increase, assuming it is approved.
    - We want input on how that is spent.
    - My thoughts are that it should go to support a hybrid learning structure and self-isolation measures, but would like to hear from you.
AMS Executive Committee

Minutes of March 31, 2021

- Cole:
  - If you want a motion, that’s cool.
  - As to feedback, we should talk more about that: maybe take it to the Advocacy Committee.

Policy I-7A
- Cole:
  - This is the mandatory mask policy.
  - It’s reached its six-month review date.
  - There’s nothing really to do unless people think there’s something we need to change.
  - I don’t think any changes are needed.
- The consensus was that the policy was good as is.

Adjournment
The meeting was adjourned at 12:51 pm.
