

AMS EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE
NOVEMBER 27, 2022

Recording Secretary: Lawrence Liu

Building operations hour

- Working from home or vacation

Eshana: nest has been offered as heating center

Kathleen: services will be on hiatus, need to double check on SASC

Eshana: AMS nest will be open throughout the winter break, outside of statutory holidays

Giant Christmas tree

Eshana: my team wants to put up a tree in the atrium, students can stick up ornaments if they want

- Will need to figure out logistics,
- Under the Christmas tree, people can deposit their presents

Equitable policy

- New policy being introduced at the AMS
- Eshana: part of my campaign to introduce something like this

Ben: the difference between aboriginal and indigenous

Kamil: indigenous is the term we used, aboriginal is updated

Ben: a section in the indigenous guideline contradicts a similar section in PC6

Eshana: Indigenous Guideline can refer to PC6, IG is more of a guide, PC6 is more of a policy, more operational thing

Erin: perhaps not in policy, are we advertising it? Something we should be aware of is the messaging around it.

Eshana: We have to be intentional behind messaging, we should have message to compensate

Ben: equity action framework, has a different definition for equity-seeking groups

Erin: UCRU coming up. Finish report for UCRU

Ben: Room booking improvement. Container washing station. Lending library by end of year.

Clubs fair went.

Lawrence: Quarterly report. Reforecast. New system.

Eshana: Interfaculty Cup. Tuition appeal to Board. Service Review.

Celia: keeping ball rolling. Bargaining was supposed to be this week. AMS shortstaffed.

Kathleen: hiring for housing. Opened new food bank on Monday.
