Article 1. Conflict of Interest for Directors of the Society

1. Voting members of Council, as Directors of the Society, shall act honestly and in good faith in the best interests of the Society as a whole, and exercise the care, diligence and skill of a reasonably prudent person in carrying out their duties.
2. Directors shall use the utmost care and discretion in the handling of confidential and privileged information and shall not use such information for personal benefit or gain. Furthermore, Directors shall not disclose any information discussed in an in camera meeting of Council without the authorization of Council or in accordance with Section III, Article 1(26)(e).
3. No Director may, in their role as a Director, participate in any decision, exercise an official power or perform an official duty or function in which they may have either a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.
 - (a) Without limiting the generality of paragraph 3 above, if a Director has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest relating to an issue being deliberated on by Council, or a Committee of Council, they shall declare the nature of the conflict and abstain from speaking or voting on the issue, or on any subsidiary motion related to the issue, except to raise a question of privilege.
 - (b) If a proxy is attending a Committee of Council in the place of a Director who has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest, or if the proxy themselves has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest, the proxy shall state the nature of the conflict and abstain from speaking or voting on the issue or on any subsidiary motion related to the issue, except to raise a question of privilege.
 - (c) Paragraphs (a) and (b) above notwithstanding, at the request of the Chair, or if Council or the Committee so directs by Resolution, the Director or proxy may answer questions pertaining to the issue on which they have a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.
 - (d) For greater certainty, the rules restricting participation in paragraphs (a) and (b) above shall apply during discussion of an issue even if no formal motion is on the table.
5. If a Director or proxy who has a conflict or apparent conflict of interest is chairing a meeting of Council or a Committee of Council, they shall relinquish the chair while the issue on which they have a conflict or apparent conflict is being discussed.
6. If Council, or a Committee of Council, moves in camera to discuss an issue on which a Director or their proxy is in a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest, that Director or proxy shall be required to remove themselves from the in camera session in which the issue is to be discussed, unless specifically invited to stay by a Two-thirds (2/3) Resolution of Council or the Committee.

7. In the event that a Director is uncertain about whether or not they are in either a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest, the Director shall inform Council or a Committee of Council of the possible conflict and the Chair shall decide whether there is an actual conflict. If the Chair's decision is appealed, or if the issue of a Director's conflict becomes a resolution before Council, or a Committee of Council, for any other reason, then that Director shall abstain from speaking or voting on the resolution.
8. If a Director believes that another Director may be in a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest, they shall ask the Chair to decide the matter. If the Chair's decision is appealed, or if the matter becomes a resolution before Council or a Committee of Council for any other reason, then the Director who is in a possible conflict shall abstain from speaking or voting on the resolution.
9. If the Managing Director or the Human Resources Manager believes that a Director may be in a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest, they shall ask the Chair to decide the matter. If the Chair's decision is appealed, or if the matter becomes a resolution before Council or a Committee of Council for any other reason, then the Director who is in a possible conflict shall abstain from speaking or voting on the resolution.
10. A Director has a conflict of interest when the Director, in their capacity as a Director, exercises an official power or performs an official duty or function and at the same time knows that in the exercise of the power or in the performance of the duty or function there is an opportunity to further their private interest. A Director shall also be considered to be in a conflict of interest on an issue if the issue concerns relations with an organization outside the Society and if the Director serves on the board of that other organization, unless the Director is serving on the other board by virtue of being the Society's representative on that board.
11. A Director has an apparent conflict of interest if there is a reasonable perception, which a reasonably well-informed person could properly have, that the Director's ability to exercise an official power or perform an official duty or function, in their capacity as a Director, may have been affected by their private interest.
12. A Director must not use their office to seek to influence a decision, to be made by another person, to further the Director's private interest.
13. A Director's private interest shall include the private interests of the Director's family and the private interests of a companion, business associate or a close personal friend of the Director.
14. The definitions of conflict of interest and apparent conflict of interest for Directors in paragraphs 10 through 13 above shall apply to proxies. In addition, any proxy who is an employee of the Society shall be considered to be in a conflict of interest on all issues that come before a Committee of Council.

 - (a) No Executive Member of Council or other Director of the Society may accept a fee, a gift, a personal benefit or hospitality that is offered or tendered by virtue of their position as an Executive or a Director, unless authorized to do so by Council.
 - (b) Subsection (a) above does not apply to a gift or personal benefit that is incidental to the protocol or social obligations that normally accompany the responsibilities of office.
 - (c) If a gift or personal benefit referred to in subsection (b) above exceeds $150 in value, or if the total value received directly or indirectly from one source in any twelve (12) month period exceeds $150, the Executive or Director must immediately disclose to Council, in writing:
 - (i) the nature of the gift or benefit;
 - (ii) its source; and
 - (iii) the circumstances under which it was given and accepted.
 - (d) Upon receipt of a written disclosure referred to in subsection (c), Council shall either allow the recipient to keep the gift or benefit, direct that the gift or benefit be returned, or direct that the gift or benefit be disposed of in any other manner it sees fit.
16. All Directors shall sign an oath of office, prior to their first meeting of Council, in which they agree to abide by the provisions of this Article. All Executive Members shall sign the oath prior to the commencement of their term of office. If a Director appoints a proxy to take their place on Council or a Committee for a meeting, the proxy shall sign the oath of office before the meeting.
17. Any Director who contravenes this Section of Code may be:
 - (a) directed by a Resolution of Council to:
 - (i) pay restitution to the Society for any financial loss suffered by the Society as a direct result of their action;
 - (ii) account for, and dispose of, any profits made as a result of a breach of this Section;

18. Proxies appointed by Directors shall abide by all the rules concerning Directors contained in this Section of Code. Any proxy who contravenes this Section of Code shall be subject to the penalties outlined in paragraph 20(a) above.
19. Directors shall not receive monetary compensation from the Society unless such monetary compensation is received as a direct result of their positions:
 - (a) as a Director; or
 - (b) within one of the Society's Constituencies or one of the Affiliated Institutions' student associations.

Article 3. Conflict of Interest for Non-Voting Members of Council

1. Non-voting members of Council shall act honestly and in good faith in the best interests of the Society as a whole, and exercise the care, diligence and skill of a reasonably prudent person in carrying out their duties.

3. The Executive Committee shall establish further provisions regarding conflict of interest in relation to Officers. The Managing Director shall develop further provisions regarding conflict of interest in relation to employees, and shall take steps to ensure that such provisions are contained in the Personnel Handbooks in accordance with Section IX C of the Code.
4. All Officers, not including officers of Subsidiary Organizations or Student Resource Groups, shall sign an oath of office in which they agree to abide by the provisions of this Article and the additional provisions regarding conflict of interest established by the Executive Committee.

Article 5. Protection of Directors, Officers and Others

1. Every Director, officer and employee of the Society and their heirs, executors, administrators and other legal personal representatives shall from time to time be indemnified and saved harmless by the Society from and against:

The Speaker's term of office shall be from the first meeting in May until the final meeting in April.
2. The Speaker shall not hold any other elected, staff, or appointed position in the Society, including positions within Constituencies. If the Executive Committee as a whole is an interested party, the report shall also be made available to Council.
7. The Ombudsperson may refuse to investigate or may cease investigating a complaint which in the Ombudsperson's opinion is not reasonable. Examples of unreasonable complaints include but are not limited to those in which:
 - (a) the complaint concerns a matter which last occurred more than one calendar year prior to the date of the complaint;
 - (b) the subject matter of the complaint primarily affects a person other than the complainant, and the complainant does not have sufficient personal interest in the issue;

9. Notwithstanding paragraph 8 above, the Ombudsperson may refuse to refer an Active Member to the Advocacy Office when the Ombudsperson deems such advocacy not to be in the interests of the Society. Such a decision of the Ombudsperson is appealable, in writing, to the Executive Committee.
10. The Advocacy Office may refuse to pursue or may cease pursuing a complaint which in the opinion of the Advocacy Office is not reasonable. Examples of unreasonable complaints include but are not limited to those in which:

 - (b) the subject matter of the complaint primarily affects a person other than the complainant, and the complainant does not have sufficient personal interest in the issue;
 - (c) there are existing administrative procedures for the complaint, and the complainant does not have reasonable justification for not pursuing the complaint using those procedures;
 - (d) the complaint is frivolous, vexatious, not made in good faith, or concerns a trivial matter; or
 - (e) in the circumstances, the intervention of the Advocacy Office would not benefit the complainant.
11. If, in accordance with paragraph 10 above, the Advocacy Office refuses to pursue or ceases pursuing a complaint, the complainant may appeal the refusal or cessation to the Ombudsperson.
12. The Ombudsperson shall not investigate or shall cease investigating a matter that is or becomes before a court.
13. The Ombudsperson may conduct, or cause to be conducted, either a formal or an informal investigation into any matter brought before them. If a complainant makes a written request for a formal investigation, the Ombudsperson must, subject to the discretion granted to them in paragraph 7 above, conduct a formal investigation.
14. In conducting a formal investigation pursuant to paragraph 13 above, the Ombudsperson shall, at a minimum:

 34. The author of a motion, or the Chair of the Committee or other body of the Society from where a motion came, shall have the first opportunity to move and motivate said motion.
 35. For motions on which there is debate, the Chair shall seek to have the debate begin with one speaker for the motion, followed by one speaker against the motion.
 36. In accordance with Robert's Rules, no member of Council shall speak more than twice on any motion or amendment, except to raise or answer a point of information, to raise a point of order or privilege, to move an amendment, or to move to refer.

 - (e) If Council decides to continue debate beyond sixty (60) minutes, there shall be a vote on whether to call the question after another thirty (30) minutes has passed, and after a second sixty (60) minutes has passed, there shall be a vote on the motion, unless Council again decides by a Two-thirds (2/3) Resolution to continue debate.
 - (f) If Council decides to continue debate beyond a second sixty (60)-minute period, the rules in paragraph (e) above shall apply for each subsequent sixty (60)-minute period.
 - (g) When debate is limited in accordance with these provisions, the Chair shall endeavour to ensure that speakers alternate between members of Council and guests.
38. Council meetings shall last no more than four (4) hours, unless extended by a Resolution of Council.
39. The Chair shall ensure that all the time limits in this Article are strictly adhered to.
40. Remote Attendance

 - (b) The President shall only permit remote attendance for good reasons, such as illness, personal emergency, or being out of town.
 - (c) The Executive Committee and the Speaker of Council shall maintain a reliable means for members of Council to attend meetings remotely, preferably by a video conferencing system or alternatively by speaker phone or other similar device, so long as whatever system or device is used permits all members attending, whether in person or remotely, to hear each other and participate in debate.

- (d) The Executive Committee and the Speaker of Council shall also maintain a reliable means for members of Council who are attending meetings remotely to cast both roll call votes and secret ballot votes.
 - (e) If in accordance with paragraph (b) above, the President denies a request for remote attendance, the Council member so denied may appeal to the Speaker of Council.

42. At the President’s discretion, Council may conduct business by means of digital votes without conducting a meeting, the results of such votes to be recorded in the minutes of the next meeting of Council. However, if any one (1) member of Council (voting or non-voting) objects to a digital vote on a particular motion, that motion shall be brought to a Council meeting.
43. The President must send the request for a digital vote to all voting and non-voting members of Council and allow two (2) business days for the voting members to submit their votes digitally, with the understanding that in emergency cases a shorter time period may be allowed.
44. For a digital vote to pass, all voting members of Council must consent in writing to the motion.

Article 2. Agendas and Minutes

1. (a) The President shall ensure that the agenda for each regularly scheduled Council meeting is circulated to members of Council and other interested parties by 4 pm three (3) business days or five (5) calendar days in advance of the meeting; any accompanying material shall be circulated at the same time; such material shall include background information on motions detailing the rationale for them; such material shall also include information from all committees, including the Executive Committee, recording the dates of the latest and next upcoming meetings of the committee and listing minutes and reports being submitted to Council from the committee.

SECTION VIII: INDIGENOUS COMMITTEE

Article 1. Purpose and Mandate

1. The purpose of the Indigenous Committee is to establish an Indigenous student governance system on the UBC Vancouver campus and to integrate Indigenous forms of knowledge and practice into the Alma Mater Society (the AMS).
2. The mandate of the Indigenous Committee is to work with the AMS, rather than have the AMS and, by extension, the University do work on our behalf. Our voices, our knowledge and our representation are essential to the true nature of Reconciliation as an action, an action that we are accountable to, as well as all citizens of this land.
3. The Indigenous Committee shall be the responsible party for maintaining, budgeting and disbursing funds from the Indigenous Students Fund, which is to be renewed at the end of every September in perpetuity until otherwise declared by the UBC Vancouver student population through a referendum.

2. We, along with the University of British Columbia staff and faculty and its approximately 57,000 students, are all guests on this campus, and the larger territory that borders the Squamish and the Tsleil-Waututh nations. As guests, it is our responsibility to recognize this land as stolen and sacred, and we must all do our best to honour our hosts as uninvited visitors.

5. The Indigenous Committee Executives team shall be elected by consensus by the members of the Indigenous Committee on October 1st of every year. The Executives shall hold their positions for an entire calendar year. In the event that someone can no longer fulfill their role, the outgoing student can recommend a nominee for that role. The Indigenous Committee shall elect a student by consensus to fill that role until the next appointment in early October.

10. Declaration of Expenses and Application for Reimbursement

- (a) To demonstrate compliance with the spending limits established pursuant to paragraph 9(a) above, every candidate must submit to the Elections Committee a statement of campaign expenses. This statement, signed by the candidate and supported by itemized receipts, must be submitted no later than one week after the end of the Official Campaign Period. The submitted material may be audited at the discretion of the Elections Committee. Additional statements may be considered at the discretion of the Elections Committee, but in no case more than nine (9) days after the end of the Official Campaign Period.
- (b) The Elections Committee shall assess each candidate the actual cost for each declared campaign expenditure. A candidate's total assessment must not exceed the upper limit for campaign expenses set by the Committee in accordance with paragraph 9(a) above.

- (c) All candidates who submit proper expense statements shall be considered as having applied for reimbursement of those expenses. For further clarity, any candidate who withdraws during the Official Campaign Period shall be eligible for reimbursement in accordance with the rules in this Article, but any candidate who withdraws before the start of the Official Campaign Period shall not be eligible.
 - (d) Candidates shall be reimbursed for the actual cost of their materials. Their total reimbursement, including their reimbursement for minor supplies in accordance with paragraph (e) below, shall not exceed the limit set in accordance with paragraph 9(b) above. Reimbursement shall be made only for expenditures on forms of campaigning permitted by paragraph 6(f).
 - (e) Minor supplies (tape, staples, etc.) as determined by the Elections Committee need not be declared on the statement of expenses.
 - (f) If an organization to which a candidate belongs spends money on campaign materials explicitly endorsing that candidate, the money so spent shall be counted as part of that candidate's expenses when determining whether the candidate remained within the campaign spending limits, but the candidate shall not be eligible for reimbursement for such expenses. The term "campaign materials" in this provision does not include the publication of written endorsements.
 - (g) Other third party spending on behalf of a candidate shall be dealt with in accordance with paragraph 17 below.
11. Candidates shall not run in slates, real or apparent, or share expenses for campaign materials. A slate shall mean a group of candidates who run for elected office at UBC Vancouver (including but not limited to Executive positions and positions in the Senate and on the Board of Governors) on a similar platform for mutual advantage.
12. For further clarity, but without limiting the generality of paragraph 11 above, the following slate-like activities shall be prohibited:
- (a) appearing on another candidate's campaign materials, including but not limited to flyers, handouts, websites, and other social media sites;
 - (b) producing campaign materials that resemble those of another candidate in colour, branding, design, or appearance; and
 - (c) using the same slogan or slogans as one or more other candidates.

13. At its discretion, the Elections Committee may prohibit other activities it decides are slatelike.
14. Pursuant to the rules against slates in paragraphs 11 through 13 above, candidates may not endorse other candidates, either in public or in private, and also may not help other candidates in any way, including but not limited to helping with the preparation of graphics or other campaign materials.
15. Pursuant to the rules against slates in paragraphs 11 through 13 above, current members of the Executive may not publicly endorse candidates other than themselves and also may not publicly help such candidates in any way. If a public endorsement is made by a member of the Executive, the candidate endorsed must reject the endorsement in accordance with the rules in paragraph 17 below. Any Executive who violates this provision shall be referred to the Ethics and Accountability Committee.
16. Non-Executive Council members, employees in the Society's Student Services, Associate Vice-Presidents, and assistants to members of the Executive may endorse and assist candidates other than themselves only if they sign an Endorsement and Campaigning Agreement provided by the Elections Committee and submit the agreement to the Elections Committee before the commencement of the Official Campaign Period.
17. Third Party Endorsements
 - (a) Candidates must publicly declare their acceptance or rejection of third party endorsements by media outlets and any other group or individual.
 - (b) Candidates who accept a third party endorsement from a third party that will also be a financial supporter must report that endorsement to the Elections Committee within 24 hours of receiving the endorsement.
 - (c) Any spending by a financial supporter on campaign materials supporting a candidate shall be counted as part of that candidate's expenses when determining whether the candidate remained within the campaign spending limits, but the candidate shall not be eligible for reimbursement for such expenses. The term "campaign materials" in this provision does not include the publication of written endorsements with no paid promotion.
 - (d) If a third party endorser who has not been accepted as a financial supporter begins spending money on campaign materials explicitly endorsing a candidate, that candidate may notify the Elections Committee that they no longer accept the endorsement, at which point the Elections Committee shall determine how much of the spending will be counted as part of that candidate's expenses. If the candidate decides to continue accepting the endorsement, the third party shall be considered a financial supporter, and the rules in paragraph (d) shall apply.

Article 3. Violations and Penalties

1. The Elections Committee may penalize any candidate and determine the penalty for campaigning in violation of the campaign rules in Article 2(6) above and for any other breach of the Electoral Procedures and any other election irregularity.
2. For serious offences, as defined in the Candidates' Handbook, the Elections Committee may disqualify a candidate. If they decide not to disqualify, they must impose at least one of the penalties for less serious offences.
3. The Elections Committee must consult with the UBC Registrars Office on the disqualification of any candidates for UBC Senate or Board of Governors before a decision is made.
4. For less serious offences, as defined in the Candidates' Handbook, the Elections Committee may withdraw one or more of a candidate's campaign rights, including, but not limited to, the rights enumerated in Article 2(6) above. However, the Committee shall not remove a candidate's right to have an interview published in a campus publication pursuant to Article 2(4) above. And the Committee shall not remove a candidate's right to have a picture and a statement on the election website and on the ballot.
5. The Elections Committee may, at its discretion, issue a warning rather than imposing a penalty for less serious offences, especially in the case of a first offence. Warnings to candidates will not be publicized.
6. The Elections Committee shall not deduct votes as a penalty in any election or referendum.
7. If serious offences have been committed by more than one candidate in an election, the Elections Committee may declare the results of that election invalid.
8. If serious offences have been committed in a referendum, the Elections Committee may declare the results of that referendum invalid.
9. For similar offences in the same election or referendum, the Elections Committee shall impose similar penalties, except for repeat offenders.
10. If the Elections Committee disqualifies a candidate or declares an election or referendum invalid, such disqualification or declaration may be appealed to an Election Appeals Committee in accordance with Article 8(8) below.
11. The Elections Committee shall create a violations chart with examples and specific punishments. This violations chart does not need to be exhaustive.

Article 4. Referendum Regulations

1. The Elections Committee shall conduct Society referenda in accordance with Bylaw 4, the applicable portions of these Electoral Procedures, and other rules and regulations developed by the Committee, provided that those rules and regulations are consistent with the Constitution, Bylaws and Code of the Society.
2. For greater clarity, to be duly signed in accordance with Bylaw 4(1)(b) a petition signature must have been freely given without coercion and must not have been provided in exchange for alcoholic beverages or monetary benefits. They must also be kept secure in accordance with the internal policy on petition privacy and they must each include the following elements:
 - (a) the Active Member's name (printed);
 - (b) the Active Member's student number; and
 - (c) the Active Member's signature, either handwritten on paper or in electronic form produced by means of a system approved by Council on the recommendation of the Vice-President Academic and University Affairs.
3. On receiving a petition in accordance with Bylaw 4(1)(b), the President or the President's designate shall forward it to the Elections Administrator, who shall verify that it meets the requirements of the Bylaw and of this Article. If it has done so, the Elections Administrator shall forward the question on the petition to the President and Council so that a referendum may be held on it.
4. Staff resources shall be made available to assist the drafters of potential referendum questions to assist them in an impartial and confidential manner. Staff providing such assistance shall do so in an impartial manner and shall not discuss potential questions except with members of Council or the Society's senior managers.
5. All campaign material must be removed within one (1) week of the end of voting. Referendum campaigns shall be charged for the removal of materials after this period.
6. Neutrality
 - (a) The Society shall be neutral in all referenda unless Council decides by resolution to support a side. Council may only support one side in a referendum and it must be either the Yes or No side of the referendum.
 - (b) If Council does not decide to support a side in a referendum, then none of the Society's offices, materials, or resources, as described in Article 2(8) above, may be used by either side in the referendum.
 - (c) If Council decides to support a side, it must abide by all campaign rules set out in the Code and in the Referendum Handbook. It must also make public its campaign expenditures.

7. Yes and No committees:

- (a) The Elections Committee shall allocate $1,000 for reimbursement of expenses for one Yes committee and $1,000 for reimbursement of expenses for one No committee in every referendum.
- (b) If Council endorses a side in a referendum there will not be a Yes or No Committee for the side that Council has endorsed, unless a committee has already been established.
- (c) To qualify for funding, a Yes or No committee must:
 - (i) obtain a copy of the referendum handbook referred to in paragraph 9 below; and
 - (ii) submit to the Elections Committee a petition for funding before voting has begun on which must appear the following:
 - 1) the signatures and student numbers of at least fifty (50) Active Members;
 - 2) a list of the members of the Yes and No Committee identifying them as members of that committee; and
 - 3) a budget outlining any proposed expenditures.
- (d) The Elections Committee shall verify through the Registrar's office that the names and numbers appearing on petitions presented in accordance with paragraph (c) above are those of Active Members.
- (e) In the case of a referendum initiated by petition, the petitioning side shall be deemed to have fulfilled the requirements of paragraph (c) above, provided that it includes on the petition for a referendum a list of committee members as required by paragraph (c).
- (f) When originally submitting its petition for funding, a Yes or No committee must consist of five members, all of whom must be Active Members. If the committee fulfills the requirements of this Article, the Elections Committee shall designate it as the body entitled to receive referendum funding. Notwithstanding this provision, the Elections Committee may decide to put a different committee in place or to add or subtract members from the original committee so long as all the members of the reconstituted Yes or No committee are Active Members.
- (g) A committee must submit an application for reimbursement and supporting receipts to the Elections Committee in order to receive reimbursement.
- (h) The Elections Committee shall publicize the availability of funding for Yes and

No committees by means of advertisements appearing on the Society's social media sites within five (5) business days of the receipt of a referendum petition by the Vice-President Academic and University Affairs or the passing of a motion by Council calling for a referendum.

8. Anyone taking part in campaigning of any sort in favour or against a referendum must be an Active Member. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, no one who is not an Active Member may organize campaigning, recruit campaigners, or circulate campaign material, and the offices, materials, and resources of the University or any other external organization may not be used to assist campaigning. This provision notwithstanding, individuals who are not Active Members may provide information for Active Members to use during referendum campaigning, and the staff of the Society who are not Active Members may assist in creating referendum campaign materials, but only in their capacity as the Society's staff and when directed to do so by the Society's student executive and their representatives.
9. The Elections Administrator shall organize a Referendum Meeting to take place no later than seven (7) days prior to the referendum. At this meeting, the Elections Administrator shall provide interested parties with information about the parts of the Electoral Procedures relevant to referenda and shall distribute a copy of a referendum handbook to interested parties. If the referendum is taking place in conjunction with elections, the Referendum Meeting may be combined with the All-Candidates Meeting. Campaigning for a referendum may not begin until after this meeting has been held.
10. The referendum handbook shall contain a summary and explanation of the parts of these Electoral Procedures relevant to referenda. The handbook shall also include a summary and explanation of rules and regulations relevant to referenda which are not in these Electoral Procedures.

Article 5. Polling Regulations

2. Polling stations shall be in conspicuous locations, including a location in the AMS Student Nest and in other conspicuous locations at the discretion of the Elections Committee. Staffing times shall be at the discretion of the Elections Committee.
3. Except in the case of by-elections, paper ballot elections, or other special elections, voting during Society elections and referenda through electronic or paper means shall be available for at least five (5) school days.
4. The Elections Committee shall ensure that each polling station has the equipment and personnel required to conduct the voting in an efficient and secure manner, making sure to preserve the secrecy of each voter's ballot and ensuring that voters are properly informed about voting procedures and how to mark their ballots.

 - (a) Each candidate shall be permitted to have a picture and a statement on the election website and on the ballot, the word limit and picture size to be determined by the Elections Committee. The deadline for submission of the picture and statement shall be set by the Elections Committee and publicized in the Candidates' Handbook.
 - (b) Each Yes or No committee in a referendum shall be permitted to have a statement on the election website and on the ballot, the word limit to be determined by the Elections Committee. If Council endorses a side in the referendum, the Society shall be permitted to have a statement on the elections website and on the ballot, the word limit to be determined by the Elections Committee. The Society shall not be entitled to this statement if a Yes or No committee was established before Council endorsed that side. The deadline for submission of the statement shall be set by the Elections Committee and publicized in the Referendum Handbook.
6. The Elections Committee shall take whatever steps necessary to ensure that only eligible voters cast ballots and to ensure that each eligible voter votes only once.
7. Poll Clerks
 - (a) All poll clerks and Polling Officers shall be required to attend a training session arranged by the Chief Returning Officer, at which they shall be given information on the rules and regulations relevant to them.
 - (b) While working at a polling station, no poll clerk shall make remarks supporting or opposing any candidate or referendum question; nor may a poll clerk inspect a voter's marked ballot; nor may a poll clerk vote while working. Once hired, a poll clerk shall not work as a volunteer or otherwise assist in any way in any candidate's campaign or in any referendum campaign.
 - (c) Poll clerks shall:
 - (i) manage voting stations (including opening and closing, enforcing campaign regulations, and safeguarding electoral equipment);
 - (ii) communicate any technical difficulties at the polling stations to the Chief Returning Officer; and
 - (iii) have such other powers and duties as are outlined in the Bylaws or the Code or assigned by the Elections Committee, the Elections Administrator, or the Chief Returning Officer from time to time.

Article 6. Ballots

1. In Executive elections, candidates may choose to have their full name appear on the ballot as it appears on their UBC card or they may choose to have any combination of their given names or initials of their given names appear along with their surname. At the discretion of the Elections Administrator, candidates may choose to have a reasonable nickname appear on the ballot in place of or in addition to their given names, as long as the nickname does not indicate affiliation to a group and as long as it is not obscene or libellous or an attack on other candidates. Candidates may also choose to have their pronouns appear on the ballot.
2. For all ballots, if possible, various versions shall be prepared with the names of the candidates listed in random orders on each version, so that voters will not all vote on identically ordered ballots.
3. In Executive elections, the positions to be voted on shall appear in the following order on the ballot:
 - (a) President;
 - (b) Vice-President Academic and University Affairs;
 - (c) Vice-President Finance;
 - (d) Vice-President Administration; and

 - (c) The Chief Returning Officer and at least one (1) other member of the Elections Committee must be present at all times during ballot counting.
3. Ballot Counting System
- (a) Ranked ballots shall be used for Executive elections. The voters shall be asked to rank candidates for each position using numeral marks, with “1” indicating the most preferred, “2” the second most preferred, and so on.
 - (b) Candidates who are not ranked shall be considered to have a lower preference than any ranked candidate.
 - (c) Instant Run-Off voting shall be used for each Executive position:
 - (i) Voters shall rank the candidates in order of preference. Ballots are first counted for each voter's top choice. If a candidate has more than half of the top-choice votes, that candidate wins the election.
 - (ii) If not, then the candidate with the fewest votes is eliminated, and the voters who selected the eliminated candidate as a first choice then have their votes added to the totals of their next choice. This process continues until a candidate has more than half of the votes.
 - (iii) If there are only two candidates remaining after eliminating all other candidates, but both candidates receive less than half the votes, the candidate with the most votes will win the election.
 - (iv) If there is no clear winner as defined in the paragraphs above, the election shall be decided by a coin toss by the Elections Administrator witnessed by the Elections Committee and the two remaining candidates.
- (a) Ballot counting shall be completed no more than two (2) hours after the close of polling on the last day of polling.
 - (b) As soon as the counting has been completed in Executive elections, the Elections Administrator shall release “partial unofficial results,” to include only the winners for each Executive race. “Full unofficial results” for Executive elections shall be withheld for no more than forty-eight (48) hours after the release of the partial unofficial results. In the case of Society referenda, “unofficial results,” consisting of the number of votes received by each side, shall be released by the Elections Administrator as soon as the counting has been completed. The results of Executive elections and Society referenda shall be official only when received by Council.

- (c) If a winning candidate withdraws from an Executive election before the results are made official during the presentation to Council, a new winner shall be determined by recounting the ballots using the procedure described above.
- 5. Results for elections conducted for other organizations shall be released in accordance with the agreements made with those organizations. In the case of elections to the Board of Governors and Senate, a formal letter shall be sent to the UBC Vancouver Registrar's Office (or other University office responsible for elections) to certify that the rules in force for University elections have been followed. Results for the elections to the Board of Governors and Senate may be released once approval has been received from the Registrar's Office (or other University office responsible for elections).
- 6. Records of elections and referenda shall be kept intact until the results become official by being presented to Council and shall then be stored for a year where technically feasible.
- 7. Presentation of results
 - (a) The Elections Administrator shall prepare a written report on the election or referendum, including the results, such results to include the number of votes received by each candidate in the election and the number of votes received by each side in the referendum. The Elections Administrator shall present the report to Council once any complaints or appeals pending before the Elections Committee or an Election Appeals Committee have been ruled on in accordance with Article 8 below.

If it does, the Chair of the Election Appeals Committee shall notify the Elections Committee of the appeal and provide it with a copy of all relevant documentation.
18. The Elections Committee shall make a written response to the appellant's application.
19. Once constituted, an Election Appeals Committee shall create procedures as it sees fit to deal with the issue before it, but it must allow the appellant and the Elections Administrator to appear before it in person and make statements. It must also allow them each to name a representative to appear with them or in place of them if they so choose, such a representative to be an Active Member.
20. After receiving an appeal application submitted in accordance with the provisions of this Article, an Election Appeals Committee may overturn a decision of the Elections Administrator or the Elections Committee if it determines that in arriving at that decision:
 - (a) the Elections Administrator or the Elections Committee acted in a manner

- inconsistent with the Electoral Procedures in the Code or with the procedures contained in the candidates' handbook issued by the Elections Committee;
- (b) the Elections Administrator or the Elections Committee failed to consider relevant evidence;
 - (c) the Elections Administrator or the Elections Committee acted in an obviously unfair manner; or
 - (d) the Elections Administrator or the Elections Committee imposed inconsistent penalties for similar offences in the same election or referendum.
21. If the Election Appeals Committee decides to overturn a decision of the Elections Administrator or the Elections Committee in accordance with paragraph 20 above, it may:
- (a) substitute its own decision for that of the Elections Administrator or the Committee; or

- (b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) above, a complaint may be submitted to an Election Appeals Committee before the Elections Committee has ruled on it if:
- (i) the Elections Committee has failed to rule on it within a reasonable time;

- or
 - (ii) the Election Appeals Committee determines that it would be unreasonable to wait for a decision by the Elections Committee.
21. Candidates and other persons involved in elections or referenda must comply with rulings of the Elections Administrator and the Elections Committee even if those rulings are in the process of being appealed to an Election Appeals Committee. Only if an Election Appeals Committee overturns a ruling may compliance with it cease.

Article 9. Constituency Elections and Referenda

1. Constituencies shall determine the rules and procedures to be followed in conducting their elections and referenda, provided however that the following conditions are adhered to:

 - (l) all members of a Constituency in good standing shall be entitled to vote and run in all elections conducted by that Constituency, and to vote in all referenda conducted by that Constituency, except that Constituencies may hold elections for representatives from specific years or programs that are limited to members in those years or programs, with the following proviso:
 - (i) if the Constituency limits who can vote in an election, it must make the same limitation on who can run, and vice versa;
 - (m) voting in all elections and referenda shall be by secret ballot;

and on any decisions made by that Constituency's election officials if requested to do so by an Active Member of that Constituency. This provision notwithstanding, a request may be made to the Elections Committee without a previous internal appeal in a Constituency if such an appeal would not take place before the results are finalized or if the Elections Committee determines that it would be unreasonable to wait.
