Constitution of the Pride Collective

Definitions
1. Where terms are not defined, they shall have the meaning given in the Alma Mater Society (AMS) Code of Procedure, Bylaws or Operations Committee Manual, the British Columbia (BC) Societies Act or University Act, as appropriate.

Article I: Name
1. The name of the Resource Group shall be the University of British Columbia (UBC) Pride Collective (hereinafter the Collective or Pride).

Article II: Purpose
1. The purpose of the Resource Group shall be to advocate for and support members of the 2SLGBTQIA+ community at the University of British Columbia Vancouver and its Affiliated and Residential Colleges.

Article III: Location and Land Acknowledgement
1. The land holding UBC's so-called Vancouver campus is the unceded, stolen, and illegally occupied territory of the he̓n̓q̓əmin̓əm̓ (hunquminum) speaking xʷməθkʷəy̓əm (Musqueam) people. We are unwelcome guests upon this land, and we have a moral responsibility to uphold Musqueam's right to self-governance, self-determination, and control of the territory that is legally theirs.

Article IV: Membership
1. Any Active or Associate Member of the Alma Mater Society (AMS) of UBC Vancouver may become a member of the Collective.
2. An eligible individual becomes a member upon joining the Discord server or by attending a General, Committee, or Discussion Group meeting.
3. An individual shall maintain their membership until they cease to be an Active or Associate Member of the AMS.
4. The Collective shall not charge membership fees or other subscriptions for membership.

Article V: The Executive
1. Elections
   a. The President and Treasurer shall be elected in March or April of each year, with the exact date determined by a two-thirds majority vote of the Organizational Committee vote.
   b. Those running shall declare their candidacy using an online form to be administered by the Treasurer, which shall close after seven (7) days.
   c. At the next General Meeting, after the form has closed, candidates may present their candidacy in a manner decided by the Organizational Committee.
   d. Voting shall be conducted via an online form, administered by a member of the Collective, which shall be selected by vote in a meeting of the Organizational Committee and shall be open for seven (7) days.
2. The President
   a. The President shall perform any duties required by AMS Code, Bylaws, Policies, or other governing documents.
   b. The President shall not:
      i. Warrant to represent the Collective in its entirety.
      ii. Enter into agreements on behalf of the Collective without the consent of the Organizational Committee.

3. The Treasurer
   a. The Treasurer shall:
      i. Perform any duties required by the AMS Code, Bylaws, Policies, or other governing documents.
      ii. Ensure that all purchases made on behalf of the Collective are made in accordance with AMS procedures and best practices.
      iii. Establish procedures and rules governing the reimbursement of expenses.
      iv. Maintain a public spreadsheet providing details of budgetary expenditures.
      v. Ensure General Meetings are updated as to the details of net expenditure and remaining budget.
      vi. Submit financial reports to the Finance Committee as required by Code.
   b. The Treasurer shall not:
      i. Violate any AMS policies.
      ii. Misrepresent expenditures in a manner violating AMS policies or best practices.
      iii. Refuse to file reimbursements without adequate grounds.

4. The Secretary
   a. The sole function of the Secretary shall be to sign Cash Reimbursement Memoranda upon the ratification of said Memoranda by the Organizational Committee.
   b. Any number of Secretaries shall be selected by the Organizational Committee upon the role becoming necessary. The Organizational Committee shall determine the necessary number of Secretaries to be selected.
   c. When a Secretary has signed the relevant Memoranda, they shall cease to hold office and the office shall fall vacant.

Article VI: Removal
1. Removal of an Executive
   a. The process for removing an Executive shall be initiated by motion, with an attached explanation, signed by at least 25 members (with student numbers provided). This motion shall be presented to a Meeting of the Organizational Committee.
   b. An electronic voting form, to be administered by a member selected by the Organizational Committee, shall be made available within 24 hours. This form shall be circulated according to a method determined by the Organizational Committee.
   c. The voting form shall be open for seven (7) days.
d. If 80 percent of those who vote, excluding abstentions, are in favour, the Executive in question shall be removed from office.
e. Following their removal from office, the former Executive shall immediately relinquish access to any Pride Collective accounts they had access to, and the passwords to said accounts shall be immediately changed.

2. Removal of a Committee or Discussion Group Facilitator
   a. Upon receipt of a complaint from a Committee or Discussion Group member regarding the conduct of a Facilitator, the complaint shall be discussed at the next meeting of the Organizational Committee.
   b. Following said discussion, the Organizational Committee may, by two-thirds majority vote, remove said Facilitator from office.

3. Removal of an individual from a Committee or Discussion Group
   a. A Facilitator may, at their discretion, remove an individual for disruption to a Committee or Discussion group for the remainder of said meeting.
   b. A Facilitator may, at their discretion, ask the Organizational Committee to, by a two-thirds majority vote, exclude an individual from said committee or discussion group for a period of time determined by the Organizational Committee.
   c. For the Organizational Committee, an individual may be removed for the remainder of the meeting by the person selected to facilitate the meeting.

4. Removal of an individual from Pride spaces and events:
   a. Upon receipt of a complaint by any member of the Collective which leads the Organizational Committee to believe that a given individual presents a risk to the mental, emotional, or physical security of other members of the Collective, the Organizational Committee may, by two-thirds majority vote, exclude an individual from access to areas of the Collective’s spaces or activities (excluding General Meetings).

5. In accordance with the AMS Code of Procedure, an individual sanctioned under the above process shall have the right to appeal to the AMS Operations Committee.

6. Upon receipt of a complaint by any member of the Collective, the Organizational Committee may remove a Discord Moderator by 2/3rds majority vote. The Organizational Committee may also, by majority vote, temporarily remove an individual’s moderator status until a complaint is resolved.

7. Where an individual is determined by the Organizational Committee to be in Conflict of Interest on an item the individual in conflict shall be removed from the discussion and voting for that item.

Article VII: General Meetings

1. During the UBC Winter Session, there shall be a General Meeting once per week, excluding holidays, reading breaks, and the break between Term 1 and 2.
2. A General Meeting may be canceled if one of the following conditions occurs:
   a. The Organizational Committee was unable to meet to discuss an agenda.
   b. The Organizational Committee decides that hosting a General Meeting on a given date would cause undue hardship to members. If said circumstances arise later than one (1) day before the General Meeting is scheduled to occur, the President or Treasurer may cancel said General Meeting at their discretion.
3. Any cancellation must be announced via Discord or other social media at the earliest possible notice.
4. Any member may attend a General Meeting.
5. A remote attendance option shall be available at all General Meetings.
6. The quorum of a General Meeting shall be 7 members.
7. Decisions at a General Meeting shall strive to be made by consensus, but when consensus can not be reached, decisions shall be made by a four-fifths (80%) majority. If 35 percent of those voting abstain, the decision shall be tabled for discussion before another vote is held.
8. All budgetary items of the Collective shall be voted on at a General Meeting.
9. Pursuant to Article XIV, all Official Stances and Endorsements shall be voted on at a General Meeting.
10. The vote of the Collective on a proposal before the Resource Group Allocation Committee shall be decided at a General Meeting.
11. The location, date, and time of each general meeting shall be announced no less than five (5) days beforehand.
