Volunteer Engagement Lead (Two Positions):

Position Overview

The AMS Academic and University Affairs office is looking for a motivated and organized Volunteer Engagement Lead to join our campaigns teams. In this volunteer role, you will be responsible for leading and communicating with volunteer teams, acting as a crucial link between the Campaign and Outreach Commissioner and general volunteers. This is an excellent opportunity to develop leadership skills, gain experience in team management, and make a tangible impact on large-scale, university-wide student-led initiatives.

Key Responsibilities

- Volunteer Coordination: Lead, manage, and motivate volunteer teams to support various campaigns and events, including Textbook Broke, Academic Integrity Week, and the Teaching & Learning Gala.
- Communication: Serve as the primary liaison between the Campaign and Outreach Commissioner and the volunteer teams, ensuring clear and consistent communication. The volunteer engagement lead will function as an additional layer of accountability for volunteers.
- Recruitment & Onboarding: Assist in the recruitment and onboarding of new volunteers, helping to build a strong, directed team.
- Training & Development: Organize and facilitate training sessions for volunteers to ensure they are well-prepared and equipped to fulfill their roles.
- Team Building: Foster a positive and inclusive team environment where volunteers feel valued and supported.
- Problem-Solving: Address any challenges or issues that arise within the volunteer teams, providing guidance and support as needed.
- Event Support: Work alongside volunteers during events to ensure smooth execution and provide real-time leadership.

Required Skills and Qualifications

- Leadership Abilities: Demonstrated leadership skills and a desire to develop further in this area.
- Communication Skills: Excellent verbal and written communication skills, with the ability to convey information clearly and effectively.
- Organizational Skills: Strong organizational and time-management skills, with the ability to manage multiple tasks and coordinate a team.
- Team Player: Ability to work collaboratively and build strong relationships with volunteers and staff.

- Problem-Solving: Proactive approach to identifying and addressing issues within volunteer teams.
- Passion for Advocacy: An interest in advocacy, particularly in the areas of academics and student life, and a desire to support student-led initiatives.

What You'll Gain

- Leadership Experience: Hands-on experience in leading and managing volunteer teams.
- Networking: Opportunity to connect with AMS leadership as well as the student community more broadly
- Skill Development: Develop your communication, organizational, and problem-solving skills by organizing, pitching, and developing university-wide campaigns.
- Impact: Play a key role in promoting cross-campus events that engage a diverse group of people and have far-reaching impacts on students across campus.
