

Science Undergraduate Society of the University of British Columbia - Vancouver

CONSTITUTION

Last Updated: 7 February 2025

Constitution

We, the undergraduate students of the Faculty of Science at the University of British Columbia - Vancouver, in order to promote the academic, physical and social well-being of, foster a measure of pride and spirit in, create a community of friendship and goodwill for, maintain good relations with other communities on campus on behalf of, and extend a welcome to all students enrolled in our Faculty, do hereby ordain and establish this Constitution for the Science Undergraduate Society of the University of British Columbia - Vancouver.

Section I: Name

The organization is to be named the "Science Undergraduate Society of the University of British Columbia - Vancouver."

Section II: Objectives

The organization is to exist to work towards the following objectives:

1. To uphold the Constitution of the organization;
2. To act in the interest of Science undergraduate students, on campus and in the community;
3. To provide services promoting the academic, physical, mental, and social well-being of the Science undergraduate students;
4. To collaborate with and support the activities of Science student clubs;
5. To sponsor and organize events of general interest to all Science undergraduate students;
6. To promote relations between professionals in the field of Science and Science undergraduate students;
7. To act as a liaison between Science undergraduate students, the Alma Mater Society, and the Faculty of Science;
8. To ensure full and proper student representation for all Science undergraduate students;
9. To assist incoming first year Science undergraduate students and to orient them to university life;
10. To advocate for the fair, just, and equitable treatment of all Science undergraduate students;
11. To build community and spirit amongst Science undergraduate students; and
12. To manage and maintain the Abdul Ladha Science Student Centre.